Dixon 4-Her Has Best Mini Garden

A Dixon Community 4-H'er, Linda McDaniel, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean McDaniel of N. Sims St., is winner of the Cleveland County Farm Bureau's first prize award for the best mini garden project of a Cleveland County 4-H'er.

Jack Scism, president of the County Farm Bureau, presented a $25 savings bond to Miss McDaniel, a ninth grader, Monday afternoon at her home.

The mini-garden project was sponsored this year by the Cleveland County Agricultural Extension Service for 4-H'ers and youth of 4-H age.

Lime, fertilizer, seed, and plants were donated by Rainbow Farm Center, Smith-Douglas Fertilizer, Carolina Farm and Garden, FCX, Elmore feed and Seed, Kings Mountain Farm Center, and Randy's Produce. A total of 80 kits were supplied to interested youngsters. The gardens were judged in late June and prizes provided by the Cleveland County Farm Bureau.

Contained in the gardens were english peas, beets, green beans, potatoes, sweet corn, tomatoes, and cantaloupes. All of these vegetables were planted in a 10 by 15 foot area. The gardens were judged on a point system based on conformation to the mini-garden plan, weed control and overall appearance, and the gardener's knowledge of gardening techniques.

After two days of hard judging, the judges noticed one thing — the mini-gardens usually looked better than the larger family gardens!

A member of the Dixon 4-H club since April, Linda has loved gardening all her life and started at a young age helping her parents in their backyard vegetable garden. The family is already enjoying corn, green beans, cucumbers and tomatoes from Linda's garden and Mrs. McDaniel plans to freeze vegetables for winter-time eating.

Rescue Tourney Is Scheduled

The 19th annual Cleveland County slowpitch softball tournament will begin August 7 at Shelby City Park. The event is sponsored by the Shelby Rescue Squad.

Entry fee is $60 plus one new ASA approved ball per game. The tournament is open to any team.

A women's tournament will be scheduled if as many as eight teams enter, a squad spokesman said.

Deadline for entering both tournaments is August 1 at 6 p.m. Entry fees should be mailed to the Shelby Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 777, Shelby, N.C. 28150, or call 482-3333 for more information.

Yo-Yo Olympics Are Scheduled

Boys and girls in the Kings Mountain area will soon have a chance to show off their skills and have some fun with the Duncan Yo-Yo, as Americans everywhere have done historically for over 50 years. This time the competition begins at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, August 6, in the second annual Yo-Yo Olympics. This year's competition, the first for this area, will be held in the games room of the Kings Mountain Neighborhood Facility Center (Community Center) located at 208 North Cleveland Avenue.

Youngsters through the age of 15 are eligible to participate in two age categories — 11 and under and 12 through 15.

Boys and girls will be called upon to perform 10 tricks at the local level, including such favorites as Gravity Pull, Sleeper, Walk the Dog, Forward Pass and Around the World, but can qualify for state and regional finals with a minimum number of points, along with the winners in each division. State and Regional winners will receive handsome Yo-Yo Olympics T-shirts.

Nine regional titlists will go on to compete in the Yo-Yo Olympics National Finals on Saturday, September 13, at Universal Studios Entertainment Tour Center in Hollywood, California. A $1,000,000 U.S. Savings Bond will be awarded to the Gold Medalists. Each Regional winner earns a $100.00 bond, awarded at the National Finals.

It is expected that in excess of one million youngsters will compete in this year's event in over 1,000 cities and counties.

The 1980 Super Sugar Crisp Yo-Yo Olympics is a cooperative public service effort jointly sponsored by Community Parks and Recreation Departments and the Duncan Toys Company on behalf of U.S. youth. The sponsor for this area competition is the Kings Mountain Parks and Recreation Department.

Participation in the competition is free and all eligible area youngsters are invited to participate.

For more information, stop by the Games Room of the Kings Mountain Neighborhood Facility Center (Community Center) or call 739-3549 or 739-6995.
