Boys and girls in the Kings Mountain area will soon have a chance to show off their skills and have some fun with the Duncan Yo-Yo, as Americans everywhere have done historically for over 50 years. This time the competition begins at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, August 6, in the second annual Yo-Yo Olympics. This year's competition, the first for this area, will be held in the games room of the Kings Mountain Neighborhood Facility Center (Community Center) located at 208 North Cleveland Avenue.

Youngsters through the age of 15 are eligible to participate in two age categories - 11 and under and 12 through 15.

Boys and girls will be called upon to perform 10 tricks at the local level, including such favorites as Gravity Pull, Sleeper, Walk the Dog, Forward Pass and Around the World, but can qualify for state and regional finals with a minimum number of points, along with the winners in each division. State and Regional winners will receive handsome Yo-Yolympics T-shirts.

Nine regional titlists will go on to compete in the Yo-Yolympics National Finals on Saturday, September 13, at Universal Studios Entertainment Tour Center in Hollywood, California. A $1,000,000 U.S. Savings Bond will be awarded to the
