L-T To Hold Auditions Next Week

The first play of the 1980-81 season for the Kings Mountain Little Theatre will be a "Who Dunit", by C.B. Gilford. This mystery-comedy will be directed by Jim Champion, a veteran performer and director for the group.

Auditions will be held at Park Grace Theatre at 7:30 p.m. on Tues., Sept. 2, and Wed., Sept. 3. There will be parts for five men and seven women with ages for each covering high school through mid fifties.

The play concerns a famous writer of mystery stories who is murdered and comes back from the grave to discover who the culprit is. He finds that he has many enemies and with only 24 hours to solve the mystery his ingenuity is tested to its fullest.

There are parts of all sizes suitable for those who have been on stage and for those who might just like to get a first taste of performing in live theatre. "Everyone would like to have this experience is encouraged to come along", according to L-T President Ray Holmes.
