Back To School Fashion Show Held

From frilly sun suits to dress up clothes, the fall 1980 children's fashions offer the widest range of styles.

Traditionally, children's fashions for fall have been called "back to school" clothes but this year variety is the keyword from casual to highly detailed, elegant dressing in young folks attire "just like mommy."

Young people paraded the latest in "back to school" clothes during a city recreation department-sponsored fashion show Saturday afternoon at Davidson Park. Verlee R. Mask coordinated the show which featured everything from dress up to casual to swim wear.

Mike Nappi, Recreation Supervisor, welcomed the group and Mrs. Rita Conte, recruiting counselor for Displaced Homemakers of Cleveland

County, invited area women to become involved in the program. Fashion Show commentators were Brenda Aldrich and Monica Hunter. Sandy Aldrich

Mauneys Celebrate Anniversary

From 2-B

Raleigh.

Younger grandchildren of the honored couple surprised their grandparents with homemade Grandma and Grandpa cakes which were displayed in the kitchen and which required a day in the kitchen under the supervision of Catherine Mauney of Albuquerque.

Special anniversary gifts were exchanged by the honored couple and their children.

Catherine Herman and Carl Fisher Mauney were married Aug. 27, 1930 at the bride's home in Conover and have lived all their married life in Kings Mountain where Mr. Mauney is treasurer of Mauney Hosiery Mills. The couple has long been active in the civic and religious life of the community and are members of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church.

A large number of out-of-town friends and relatives came to Kings Mountain to honor the couple on their golden wedding day.

Today
A MEDITATION
For the NEW AGE

JUST FOR TODAY. . . I will overcome the problem of age. I will banish from my mind the idea that I am too old - or too young for anything. I will know that age is but a mental state and treat it accordingly.
