G-W Chapel Setting For Sipe-Greene Vows

John R. Dover Memorial Chapel on the campus of Gardner Webb College at Boiling Springs provided the setting Saturday for a 6 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Deborah Kay Greene and Michael Steven Sipe.

The Rev. Steve Crouse, pastor of Enoree Baptist Church of Traveler's Rest, S.C., heard the exchange of vows in the double-ring ceremony.

Conrad Hughes was organist; Chris Cole was trumpeter and Don Baltzger, Jr. was soloist, accompanied by Mark Ledford at guitar for the program of wedding music.

Single brass candles on the altar were entwined with ivy and palms, ferns and caladiums were used throughout the Chapel as background decoration.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a long candlelight chiffon gown with empire waist. The Victorian style gown featured a high Schiffli embroidered neckline and short capelet sleeves that extended over the shoulder line. The full A line skirt was designed with a Chapel length train which was enhanced with a deep scalloped border of the delicate Schiffli embroidered lace. Long matching gauntlet gloves of the same Schiffli embroidery completed the gown. She wore a matching Designer's hat with Schiffli embroidered lace and roses and chapel length illusion streamers. She carried a bouquet of pink and ivory sweetheart roses with baby's breath.

Mrs. Dennis Hogan of Simpsonville, S.C. was the bride's matron of honor and Mrs. Sheila Mullinax of Fort Mill, S.C., sister of the bridegroom, was

Mr. and Mrs. David Wayne Hinshaw, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Sea Island, Ga. and afterwards will be at home in Clemmons, N.C.

Miss Jennie Gray Mauney became Mr. Hinshaw's bride in a 3 p.m. wedding in Saint Matthew's Lutheran Church which was characterized by reverence and in a pink and white setting enhanced by altar decorations of white snapdragons, white glads and pink roses.

Mrs. Lawrence E. Hinnant was organist for the program of wedding music. The prelude of selections included Ellsasser's "Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee", Bach's "Prelude and Fugue In F Major", Kendall's "Voluntary" with horns and cornet solo, Handel's "Suite from Water Music", including "Allegro Vivace", "Air", "Minuet", and Hornpipe, "Fugue" by Selby, Prelude on "Terra Patris" by Johnson and Bach's "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring". Mrs. Hinnant played Voluntary on "Ein Feste Burg" by Young as the processional and Psalm IX, "The Heavens Are Telling the Glory of God" as the recessional march.

Dr. William Lawrence Mauney escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride was a romantic glow in sheer white organza. Alencon lace defined the lovely portrait neckline and fashioned the natural waisted molded bodice with long tapered sleeves. Lace appliques cascaded down the front of the full flowing skirt with Chapel train. Her Chapel length mantilla, a drift of illusion edged and caressed with Alencon lace, floated from an Alencon lace cap. She carried a nosegay of white roses, baby's breath and stephanotis centered with a white orchid and showered with ribbon streamers.

Mrs. C. Jeff Mauney of Kings Mountain was her sister-in-law's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Ms. Denise Hord Collins of Virginia Beach, Va., Mrs. G. Edward Hinshaw, Mrs. Daniel G. Ross and Ms. Teresa Kate Whitener, all of Winston Salem.

All the attendants wore rose blush gowns of Tinasetta and chiffon. Soft asymmetrical drapes defined the bodices with double spaghetti straps. The dresses were enhanced by full, swirling accordion pleated skirts and matching chiffon capelets. They carried nosegays of pink roses, daisies, white mums, baby's breath and stephanotis.
