Mr. and Mrs. David McDaniel Hendersonville, N.C., and Ruskin, Fla., were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception at their home in Hendersonville Sun., July 27.

The McDaniels are former residents of Kings Mountain. Mrs. McDaniel is the former Tennie Elizabeth Dixon, daughter of the late Mattie and Clarence Thomas Dixon of Kings Mountain.

Hosts for the occasion were the children of the couple, Mrs.

Charles A. Plyler (Doris) and husband of Gastonia, and their sons, Roger and wife of Gastonia, and C. Thomas (Sonny) and wife of Rock Hill.

A garden reception was held. The refreshment table was covered with a beautiful yellow linen cloth, overlaid with white lace. In the center of the table were two five branched white wrought iron candelabras holding yellow candles. Centered between the candelabras was a long white wicker basket of yellow and white mums, Bakers fern and gypsophilia. On one end was the punch bowl and the opposite end the anniversary cake, which was served with dainty finger sandwiches, mints and nuts. The home inside and the side porch also had white wicker baskets of yellow and white mums, carrying out the same theme throughout. In the dining room were two large arrangements of yellow roses, which the couple received in their honor.

Serving punch were Mrs. Louise King and Mrs. Mike Dixon of Kings Mountain, and serving cake were Mrs. Elsie Dixon of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Gene Pursley of Gastonia. Also assisting in serving were Mrs. Roger McDaniel of Gastonia and Mrs. Tom McDaniel of Rock Hill.

The couple has six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Mrs. McDaniel has one brother, C.T. For the occasion, Mrs. McDaniel wore a long gown of grape colored georgette with attached chiffon cape of the same color.

Approximately 175 friends and relatives called during the hours of 4 to 6 p.m. Guests were from Hendersonville, Gastonia, Shelby, Fallston, Kings Mountain, Charlotte and Belwood, N.C., Rock Hill and Lancaster, S.C., and Florida and Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice H. Roberts were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception Sunday afternoon in the fellowship hall of Elizabeth Baptist Church.

Host were the couple's children, Mrs. John H. Gamble of Kings Mountain, and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bowen of Roanoke, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lee Beam greeted the more than 250 friends and relatives who called between 3 and 5 p.m.

The honoree, Mrs. Roberts, received friends in a Cranberry colored dress of Qiana with a white orchid corsage at her shoulder.

The party area was decorated throughout with arrangements of yellow roses, white daisies, yellow mums, yellow gladiolus and green ferns.

Overlaid with an imported lace cloth, the refreshment table held a four-tiered anniversary cake decorated in yellow and white and topped with yellow roses and baby's breath. The cake was cut and served with punch, wedding mints, nuts, cheese straws, assorted cookies, chicken salad shells and tiny ham biscuits.

Mrs. Paul M. Gold of Charlotte served the cake and Mrs. Lee Freeman of Concord served the punch. Gifts were opened and displayed by Mrs. William H. Williamson of Charlotte and Mrs. Robert E. Roberts of Gastonia. Mrs.

Charles Spake and Mrs. Fred Anthony of Shelby presided at the guest register. Piano music for the occasion was presented by Mrs. Wayne Roberts of Shelby.
