College Paper Award Winner

NEWBERRY, S.C. - The "Kinnikinnick," the Newberry College student literary magazine, walked off with the bulk of awards given by the South Carolina Press Association - Collegiate Division for college literary magazines published during the 1979-80 school year.

Edited by Jodi Plonk, a 1980 Cum Laude graduate, the publication received the first place award for the best literary magazine produced at all South Carolina universities and colleges last year.

In addition, in Division II competition with the smaller schools, the "Kinnikinnick" took first place honors for the best photography, single photograph, best art work, best essay, and best humorous short story.

An English major, Plonk also received the Dean Humanities Award during her senior year as the outstanding student in the fields of English, speech, dramatics and journalism during the College's Awards Day Convocation in May.

Plonk is from Kings Mountain. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Plonk.

Pvt. Howell In Training

Private William E. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy R. McGinnis of Kings Mountain, is attending basic trainee at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

During the training, students receive instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map-reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

PIANIST NEEDED

The Kings Mountain Parks and Recreation Department is seeking a volunteer piano player for this year's Community Youth Gospel Chorus. Anyone interested in volunteering should contact the office of the Kings Mountain Neighborhood Facility Center at 739-3549.
