Lutz Tapped Fund Leader

William D. Lutz of Shelby has been appointed Cleveland County chairman of North Carolina State University Alumni Association's 1980-81 Loyalty Fund Campaign.

Lutz, a 1953 graduate of N.C. State's School of Education said: "There are 324 N.C. State alumni in Cleveland County, and we're counting on them to help sustain and expand our first true merit scholarship program. Volunteers will be calling the Alumni in the County Nov. 10 to Nov. 25 asking for their support."

The Alumni Association established NCSU's first unrestricted merit scholarship program, the John T. Caldwell Scholars Program, in 1975 and commits a large percentage of its annual loyalty fund revenues to the program. The association's major thrust is to enhance the academic posture of N.C. State through programs designed to attract top scholars and recognize outstanding teaching.

Lutz will work with Jackson D. "Jack" Koone, the association's coordinator of a 10-county area that includes Cleveland. Koone, of Forest City, is an alumnus from 1956 and recently served a three-year term on the Alumni Association's Board of Directors and served as secretary/treasurer of the association in 1976-77. Koone is with Bradley-Koone Motors in Forest City.

Support of alumni in Cleveland County and the surrounding area will be a key in the association's efforts to raise more than $400,000. Statewide fund-raising efforts are under the
