GOTCHA! - If you attend the Jaycees Haunted House on East Gold this week, be especially careful when crossing the old wooden bridge which leads through the forest. There's an ugly-looking creature hiding in the dark, just anxious to get his hands on you. The Haunted House opens each night at 8 p.m. through Saturday, and this monster plus many others will be there.

Mrs. Hamilton New Director

Mrs. Marilyn P. Hamilton of Kings Mountain has been appointed the new Executive Director of the Senior Cleveland County Council on Aging, and assumes her new duties Monday.

Judge Howard Ward, president of the Council, presented a key yesterday to Mrs. Hamilton for her offices at the Senior Center at 408 E. Marion St. in Shelby.

Mrs. Hamilton, wife of First Citizens Bank Vice-President Charles E. Hamilton, was formerly social worker-case manager at the Cleveland County Mental Health Center. She has also served as a former Executive Director of the Cleveland County Red Cross. She is a graduate of Winthrop College. The Hamiltons are parents of three children.

The Senior Center is operated by the Council on the Aging for the benefit of all senior citizens 60 years or older, residing in Cleveland County. There are no dues or membership fees. Counseling, along with regular arts and crafts groups, covered dish luncheons twice a month, and other activities are planned. The Center is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.
