

MRS. GEORGE KENNETH MEEK
(Cynthia Hughes)

MRS. DAVID SCOTT FREDELL
(Sarah Lynn Bridges)

Bridges-Fredell Couple Exchange Marriage Vows

Long Creek Presbyterian Church of Bessemer City was the setting Sunday for an exchange of wedding vows uniting Miss Sarah Lynn Bridges and David Scott Fredell.

The Rev. Allen E. Morrison, minister of the church, heard the exchange of vows in a setting of brass candelabra and memory candles enhanced with greenery and centered by a white satin-covered prayer bench at which the couple knelt for the benediction.

Mrs. Nell Myers was organist for the program of nuptial music and Vance Bridges was vocal soloist.

James M. Bridges escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a formal design of Polyester Organza featuring overlying lace on the front of the bodice and on the full train which extended from a pleated full skirt. Her waist-length veil of illusion was draped from a headpiece of pearls and sequins and she carried a white Bible topped with silk orchids and showered with streamers of staphanotis.

Mrs. Michael Wayne Fredell attended her sister as matron of honor and bridesmaids were Jayne Fredell, Nina Blanton, Judy Whisnant and Liz Patterson, all of Kings Mountain, and Freida Ramseur and Dana Patterson, both of Bessemer City.

All the attendants wore long formals of navy blue polyester satin with sheer puff sleeves. They carried single mums arranged with baby's breath and satin ribbons.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

Ushers were Bobby Wilson, Benny Wilson, Billy Wilson, all of Bessemer City, Kenny Bridges, Marty Bridges and Wayne Fredell, all of Kings Mountain.

The bride's mother chose a long formal of rust and orange and a white silk orchid corsage at her shoulder.

The bridegroom's mother chose a beige and brown formal and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home on Route 2.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Bridges of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride who is a graduate of Bessemer City High School where she was a member of COO, FHA, and Christian Fellowship Club. She has also been active in Order of Rainbow for Girls. She is employed as head cashier at Harris Teeter Stores in Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Fredell of Kings Mountain and is a 1980 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School where he was active in ICT, VICA and was active in the KM Junior Fire Department. He is employed at Parkdale Mills in Gastonia.

The parents of the bride hosted a cakecutting and after-rehearsal party on Saturday night in the Fellowship Hall of Long Creek Presbyterian Church. The blue and white theme of the wedding was featured in decorative details and refreshments.

Hughes-Meek Pair Married

Miss Cynthia Marie Hughes became the bride of George Kenneth Meek in a 6 p.m. ceremony Saturday in Second Baptist Church.

The Rev. Eugene Land officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Evelyn Bridges presented a prelude of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. During the ceremony the selections "Walk Hand in Hand", and "The Wedding Song" were presented by solosits. Mike Chambers and Mrs. Evelyn Bridges.

The altar was graced with golden candelabums which held 62 candles, flanked with fresh flowers in handsome basket arrangements, fresh palms were used in the background.

The bride, given in marriage by her father Jerrell H. Hughes, wore a Milady created of sheer sophistication in white crepe 'de'chini', daisies of silken venise lace which trimmed the high neck point, de'espirit yoke and long fitted sleeves. The empire waist tops a circular skirt trimmed with matching daisy edging. The beautiful key hole back accents the attached train. An original E.E. Berger silk venise lace cap, decorated the two tier walking length white veil with rolled edges.

The white Bible carried by the bride, was beautifully covered with yellow sweetheart roses, miniature carnations and baby's breath. The Bible had been carried by the groom's mother on her wedding day.

Mrs. Tony Ruppe, sister of the bride, served as Matron of Honor. Bridesmaids were, Mrs. Sue Benson, sister of the groom of McConnells, S.C. Mrs. Sandy Etters, Miss Rhonda Spearman, Miss Cathy Barnette, all of Kings Mountain, Jamie Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Thompson of Smyrna, S.C. was the flower girl and Miss Lisa Yarbrow attended the register.

Each attendant wore a formal length gown of apricot printed dacron organza. The gown had a ruffled hem caught up in the back at a rosette to form a bustle back, a two tiered cape, also of printed dacron organza. Each attendant carried a large bronze mum with streamers.

George B. Meek served as his son's best man.

Groomsmen were Joe Hen-son, brother-in-law of the bridegroom of McConnell, S.C. Chuck Dover, of York, S.C., Alex Farrell of Rock Hill, S.C. and Jerry Ramsey, cousin of the bride of Kings Mountain. Ringbearer was Brian Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ramsey of Kings Mountain.

The bride's mother wore a formal length gown of apricot magic knit, enhanced by a flowing cape of chiffon, with a rosette on the point of the v-neck.

The bridegroom's mother wore a formal length gown of turquoise Quiana knit, with a chiffon cape, which was accented by white sea pearls around the neckline and waist.

Both mothers wore lovely double white carnations corsages.

The bride's parents entertained at a delightful reception following the ceremony at the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

Guests were greeted by the parents of the bridal pair, along with members of the wedding party. Brass containers with fresh greenery and fresh flowers banked the fireplace of the Fellowship Hall. A four tiered wedding cake centered the beautifully appointed bridal table, which was covered with a green underskirt and overlaid with white lace. Two miniature decorated cakes to each side of the wedding cake symbolized the union of the two families. An artful arrangement of fall flowers in a handsome silver container flanked by tall white tapers added to the beauty of the bridal table. A smaller table covered with a white cut work cloth held the ivy encircled punch bowl.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Renee Ramsey of Kings Mountain, and guests enjoyed assorted party pick-ups and punch which was poured by Mrs. Gwen Thompson of Smyrna, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clark of Chester, S.C. said good-byes to the guests.

BRIDE AND BRIDEGROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Jerrell H. Hughes of 507 Katherine Avenue, are parents of the bride. She is a 1978 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and is employed in the offices of Thermoac-Welco of Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Meek of 211 Simrill Avenue, York, S.C. He is a 1976 graduate of York High School and is employed at Duke Power Company of York, S.C.

The couple will be at home at Route One, Smyrna, S.C.

AFTER REHEARSAL

The grooms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George I. Meek, honored the bridal couple and other members of the wedding party, at an After Rehearsal Dinner.

MRS. BOBBY DEAN RUCKER

Stone-Rucker Pair Married

The marriage vows of Miss Jill Marie Stone and Bobby Dean Rucker were spoken Saturday evening, Oct. 25th, at Chestnut Ridge Baptist Church.

Officiating minister was the Rev. Mitchell M. Pruitt.

Music for the 4 p.m. Candlelight ceremony was presented by Mrs. Evelyn Bridges organist, and Mike Chambers, vocal soloist.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Stone of Canterbury Road, is an honor graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School. She is presently employed at Clevefont Mills and plans to soon begin work as a cosmetologist.

The bridegroom is employed by Martin Marietta Aggregates. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Rucker of Route 3.

The bride's father gave her in marriage.

Miss Dana Horne of Kings Mountain was the bride's maid of honor and only attendant.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Kelly Stone, the bride's brother, ushered with Scott Ellis, both of Kings Mountain. Ricky Stone, brother of the bride, carried the rings.

Diane Wright, the bride's aunt, presided at the register.

The couple was honored at a reception hosted by their parents after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Ruth Piper served the cake and Mrs. Sandra Neal served punch. Assisting in serving was Mrs. Jean Houser.

The newlyweds have returned from a trip to Carolina Beach and are at home on Route 3.
