

October Bride Is Entertained At Parties

Miss Lisa Renee Tignor and Timmy Whitaker, whose wedding took place Sat., Oct. 18th in a candlelight ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitesides at 906 Boyce St., were entertained at a number of parties prior to their wedding day.

A drop-in lingerie shower was held Wed., Oct. 8th, at the home of Mrs. Robert Crawford, 811 Rhodes Ave. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Don Bumgardner and Miss Cathy Crawford. The bridal colors of apricot and white, along with salmon roses and white daisies, were beautifully combined in the decorative details.

Petit fours, mints, punch and nuts were served to the 20 guests.

The bridal table featured a white lace parasol with gifts surrounding it.

Sunday, Oct. 12th, a household shower honoring Miss Lisa Tignor was given at the new home of newlyweds Scott and Tammy Ellis on Long Branch Road in Grover. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Lois Ellis and Mrs. Myra Hagans. Twenty-five guests were in attendance.

Monday, Oct. 13th, was Lisa's lucky evening. An old fashioned pantry party was given by Mrs. Doris Whitesides on Boyce Street and the engaged pair were showered with pantry gifts. The guests attending were attired in long dresses and bonnets, overalls, red bandannas and straw hats for a happy and spirited occasion.

Tuesday evening, Oct. 14th, brought most surprises and gifts for the couple at a miscellaneous shower given by the bride-elect's classmates and attended by 15 young people.

Saturday morning, Oct. 18th, Lisa and Timmy's wedding day began with a wedding breakfast at the home of Mrs. Ira Bumgardner at 806 Hillside Dr. A silver horseshoe, symbolic of good luck, was given to the bride-elect. Mothers of the honored pair were honored with corsages and gifts from the hostesses.

A busy week of activities culminated with the candlelight wedding at 7 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitesides on Boyce St. Miss Tignor is the daughter of Linda Hawkins Tignor and Ronald Eugene Tignor. Mr. Whitaker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whitaker. Both families are of Kings Mountain.

Miss Hullender Is Honored

Miss Elaine Hullender, whose wedding to Jeff Dixon took place Saturday, was honored Saturday at a 12:30 bridesmaids luncheon at the home of Mrs. Louis Sabettie, Jr. on Hillside Drive.

Entertaining with Mrs. Sabettie were Mrs. Pat Murphy of Burlington, Mrs. David Collins of Gastonia and Mrs. Clyde Murphy of Kings Mountain.

A three-course luncheon was served to 16 guests from tables appointed with gold and brown silk flowers and dried arrangements. Ivory cloths covered the bride's table and the card tables at which other guests found their places. Miss Hullender's place was marked with a corsage of white daisies and a silver casserole serving dish, gifts of the hostesses. Miss Hullender took the occasion to present her gifts to members of her bridal party.

Present as special guests were Mrs. Jake Dixon, mother of the bridegroom-to-be, and Mrs. Bob Hullender, mother of the bride-elect.

At Depot Center

Benefit Is Planned

The annual Depot Senior Center Benefit is scheduled for November 8 from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

The project is held each year to raise funds for a Christmas party for the participants of the Kings Mountain Program for the Aging.

The senior citizens raise their own funds by volunteering their time and many articles for the sale.

The popular Senior Citizens Band, better known as the "Swinging Mountaineers," will kick the program off at 10 a.m. and will play at other times throughout the day.

Two quilts that were made at the Depot Center, cakes and other goodies, and articles donated for the sale, will be auctioned off beginning at 11 a.m.

Any persons with items to donate may bring them by the Depot Center weekdays from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m., or call 739-4511.

Any groups desiring hamburgers, hot dogs, barbecue sandwiches or cakes to be delivered may call 739-3991. Sandwiches and drinks will also be sold at the Depot Center from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m., or until everything is sold.

"This is not only a sale, but it will be a day of good fellowship, singing, gospel singing and other entertainment," said Aging Director Rev. Kenneth George. "We invite everyone in the community and area to come and enjoy this event with us."

Mt. Zion Notes Anniversary

Rev. Robert Abbott, Dean of Ebenezer Association, made the principal address at Sunday's Sixth Anniversary Program at Mount Zion Baptist Church.

Mrs. Johnsell Pressley was chairman of the arrangements committee for the Anniversary program which featured special music.

Rev. D.W. Wittenbury is pastor of the church.
