to the neck bindings and extended into long raglan sleeves which gathered at the wrist. At the waistline the skirt gathered in the back bringing fullness to a soft floor-length train. She carried a silk arm bouquet of beige and brown poppies.

Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Ann Smiley, sister of the bride, Miss Gina Watson, sister of the groom, both of Gaffney, and Mrs. Kathy Dill of Spartanburg. Their china rose gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant. They carried similar bouquets of beige and brown poppies.

Andrea Bridges and Lisa Bridges, of Gaffney served as flower girls. They wore dresses similar to those of the other attendants. They carried baskets of silk mixed fall flowers.

The groom's father, Floyd Watson, served as best man. Groomsmen were Mitchel Humphries, Mike Ivey, both of Gaffney and Malcolm Watson, cousin of the groom, of Chester.

Mrs. Joan Watson, of Chester, kept the bridal register.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length dress of jade green and the groom's mother wore a formal gown of rose. Orchid corsages complemented their attire. A long-stemmed red rose was presented to each mother by the bride.

Following the wedding ceremony the bride's parents hosted a reception at Cherokee National Golf Club.

The tables were placed in a U shape and covered with yellow linen overlaid with white lace. Two baskets of mixed fall flowers decorated the tables on which assorted hors d'oeuvres were served. Assisting in serving with Mrs. Judy Godfrey, Mrs. Gail Dixon, Mrs. Mary Hamrick and Mrs. Opal Parkard.

The bride's table held a three-tiered wedding cake embossed with white roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. A yellow water fountain flowed beneath the cake. The cake was cut by the couple and served to the guest by Mrs. Ruth Ruppe and Mrs. Sheila Whelchel.

A round table decorated similar to the serving tables were used for the punch fountain from which green punch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Wells of Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith of Kings Mountain said good-byes.

Following a trip to Gatlinburg, the couple will make their home at Route 2, Gaffney. For traveling the bride wore a three piece beige suit with matching accessories.

The bride is a 1975 graduate of Gaffney High School and received an Associate's Degree in Secretarial Science from Spartanburg Technical College. She is employed in the Law Offices of E.C. Burnett, Jr. and James O. Thomason in Spartanburg. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dixon of Route 2, Kings Mountain.

The groom is a 1976 graduate of Gaffney High School and attended the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. He is employed by Taylor-Watson Furniture Company.

Following the rehearsal Saturday evening the groom's parents entertained the wedding party to a buffet dinner in Stephenson Hall at Limestone College.

Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m., Miss Gina Watson, Mrs. Sandra Huntley and Miss Myra Susan Huntley hosted a bridesmaid luncheon for Miss Ruppe and her attendants at the Watson home. The bride-to-be chose this time to present her attendants gifts.

"We bought an Escort because of its great gas mileage. We didn't want a foreign made car, but American made cars didn't offer the gas mileage of foreign cars, until Escort. We wanted a small car with room and a good ride, good traction in snow... and affordable. When you lift the hatchback, you have more room than the trunk of my larger car, but it's a lot easier to park. I love it!"

"I'm a South Carolina peach farmer with lots of rough driving in and out of my orchards. With this kind of driving I need a truck to withstand a lot of abuse."

In my farming operation I own an F600, F700 and in the past six years I have owned two F150 Ford Pick-ups. Having this past experience with Ford trucks I just recently purchased a 1981 F150 Ford pick-up and I'm pleased with the performance that I've been receiving from it."
