OBITUARIES

Funeral services for Eben Gabriel McSwain, 69, of Oxford, former resident of Kings Mountain, were conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday from Oxford Presbyterian Church by Rev. Norman McDowell.

Mr. McSwain, husband of the former Mary Frances Austelle, died of a heart attack Wednesday night at 7 p.m.

A native of Stanley County, McSwain was reared at Oxford Orphanage following the death of his parents. He attended N.C. State University and was a retired teacher and had taught at Vance-Granville Community College where he was chairman of the Electrical Installation Department. He also taught in the Electrical Department at Oxford Orphanage for 27 years and at Chapel Hill Senior High School for four years.

He was an Elder in Oxford Presbyterian Church and a member and past president of Oxford Rotary Club. He was a Mason and on the board of trustees of Vance Granville Community College.

E.B. McSWAIN

Surviving, in addition to his wife, are a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ann Antley of Indianapolis, Indiana, three brothers, J.A. McSwain of Durham, Clyde F. McSwain of Winston Salem and James D. McSwain of Salem, Va. and three grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the gifts and bequests fund of Oxford Presbyterian Church.

Hunnicut

Elected
Hal Hunnicutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hunnicutt of Gastonia and grandson of Mrs. H.R. Hunnicutt of Kings Mountain, has been elected president of the student body at Southwest Junior High in Gastonia.

Other officers of the Council are Shelby Sturgis, vice president; Jo McKoy, secretary and West Styers, treasurer.

Yarn Group

Re-Elects Hunnicutt
H.R. Hunnicutt, Jr., president of the Tultex Yarn Group of Gastonia, was recently re-elected treasurer of the American Yarn Spinners at the association's 13th annual meeting in Sea Island Ga.

The American Yarn Spinners association is the national trade association of the sales yarn segment of the textile industry and represents firms with manufacturing operations in 22 states from Maine to California.

Mr. Hunnicutt is son of Mrs. H.R. Hunnicutt of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Hunnicutt.

SUNDAY SERVICE

Evangelist Shirley Seasar will hold a 6 p.m. service Sunday at B.N. Barnes Auditorium. Special singers include Georgia Guest of Shelby, the Starlighters of Kings Mountain and Laverne Moses of Gastonia. The public is invited.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY with COPELAND CORPORATION

The Copeland Corporation, a leading manufacturer of air conditioning and refrigeration compressors is selecting candidates for a machine tool training program from which all maintenance and production employees will be selected for eventual employment in our new Shelby, North Carolina manufacturing plant.

The training program will be conducted jointly by Copeland Corporation and Cleveland Technical College. There is no cost for this training other than your personal transportation to and from the class room location and the investment of your personal time as there is no pay for the time you spend in training.

Candidates successfully completing this program will (under most circumstances) be offered employment to begin very shortly after the end of the training program at very competitive rates and with an excellent employee benefits program.

First and second shift openings are available. You may explore this opportunity further by completing an application at:
