

KMHS Jayvees Unbeaten

Kings Mountain High's jayvee basketballers continued along the unbeaten trail Tuesday, defeating East Rutherford 70-50 for their 16th consecutive victory.

Frank Parker scored 17 points and David Hager 10 to lead the Little Mounties in scoring. Avery Grier grabbed 10 rebounds and Jimmy Brown and John Barnett dished out eight and seven assists, respectively.

The Mounties jumped on top and never let up. They hit 52 percent from the field and 75 percent from the foul line and used a pressure defense to force East into several turnovers.

Season Awards Given

Cleveland County Bass Club held its awards banquet for the 1980 season on Jan. 23 at the Fish Farm in Shelby.

KIWANIS CLUB

Ginny Sproul, Regional Director of the American Lung Association of North Carolina, will be guest speaker at Thursday night's meeting of the KM Kiwanis Club at 6:45 p.m. at the Woman's Club.

Trophies were presented to Tom Mayhew, most points in tournament competition; Keeter Hamrick, sportsmanship; and Joe Turner, biggest fish, six pounds, 13 ounces.

Officers Tom Mayhew, vice president; Arnold Ledford, secretary-treasurer; and Gene Hoyle, tournament director, were awarded plaques for their service during the past year.

KMHS blazed to a 39-26 halftime lead and Coach Danny McDowell played reserves much of the second half.

"Frank Parker had another fine game for us," said McDowell. "His outside shooting kept East Rutherford's zone off balance. He had five rebounds and five assists to go with his 17 points."

"Avery Grier came off the bench and played well, getting 10 rebounds, eight points and blocked five shots. Brown had another solid floor game and hit three of four shots from the field," he said.

"David Peeler gave Brown a well-deserved rest. He was two for two from the field and two from the line. The two point guards had a fine game for us."

"Tim Odems did a very good job filling in for Grier," McDowell added. "He has come a long way for us this year."

"The guys displayed a lot of poise as they handled everything East Rutherford offered. These guys love to play defense. This was another total team win for us."

ER (50)-Fletcher 14, Turner 8, Robinson 7, McEntyre 6, Jolly 5, McCoy 4, Swann 2, Glover 2, Keith 2.

UNC-Clemson Wrestle

Clemson's Tigers will host the North Carolina Tar Heels in an Atlantic Coast Conference wrestling match Saturday at 7:30 at the Kings Mountain High gym.

The Tigers, pre-season picks to win the ACC, will be favored over the defending champion Tar Heels.

The Tigers, coached by Wade Schalles, have a veteran team and is eyeing a strong finish in the NCAA this year.

Bob Isola, last year's ACC heavyweight champ, leads the list of veterans. Other veterans are Paul Borelli at 118 pounds, Glenn Muncy at 150, Brad Gregory at 177 and heavyweight Alan Tanner.

Some of the Tigers talented newcomers are three-time Georgia State Champion Kirk Offmann and freshman All-American John Warlick, a transfer from Georgia.

The Tar Heels, coached by Bill Lam, lost most of the wrestlers from last year's team, which was unbeaten in the conference.

Two returnees are 126-pound Dave Cooke and 158-pound Jan Michaels, and among the Carolina recruits is 126-pound Darren Phillips of Ashbrook High in Gastonia.

Phillips, who won the State High School and State Freestyle titles last year at Ashbrook, has been nursing an injury but Coach Lam says he will be back in action Saturday night.

The Tar Heels are in a rebuilding year but Lam hopes to see the team peak by tournament time.

Admission to Saturday's match will be $2 for adults and $1 for students. Advanced tickets may be purchased at the KMHS office. Ticket prices in advance and at the door are the same.

WRESTLE HERE - Jan Michaels, left, and Dave Cooke, and their UNC Tar Heel teammates will be in Kings Mountain Saturday to wrestle Clemson's Tigers in an ACC match. Action gets underway at 7:30 p.m. at the KMHS gym.
