Summer School Slated

Summer School for KMSHS students will be held June 16-July 28th from 8 a.m. until 1 p.m. at Kings Mountain High School.

A tuition increase of $10 or a total of $70 per unit was approved by the Kings Mountain Board of Education Monday night.

Supt. William Davis said the tuition fee is in line with other school systems and the fee is used to pay teacher salaries which are up by about $1 per hour this year. Teacher salary for summer school work is $1,050.

Students will have choices of the following subjects: math, applied math, Algebra I and Algebra II, geometry, make up in English II, III and IV, remedial English and math and remedial or new contemporary history.

The summer schedule will provide for holidays on July 3-4-5-6.

Jaycee Tourney Slated

The Kings Mountain Jaycees will sponsor their annual Invitational Basketball Tournament Friday and Saturday at the Kings Mountain Junior High gym.

Action will open Friday at 7 p.m. with the Kiwanis Club playing the Rotary Club. The Jaycees will face the KMJH teachers at 8:30.

The winner of the 7 p.m. game will advance against the Senior High teachers on Saturday and the winner of that game will face the Jaycee-Junior High teachers for the title.

Admission is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Proceeds will go to the Jaycees Leadership Scholarship Fund and the general fund.

GROUND BREAKING

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the expansion of Kings Mountain Hospital will be held at 3 p.m. March 20. Hospital trustees will be conducting the ceremonies, along with Senator Ollie Harris, Mayor John Moss and other city and county officials. The public is invited to attend, Hospital Administrator Grady Howard said.

Legion District Meets Sunday

Area Legionnaires are invited to go to Spindale Sun., Mar. 15th, at 2:15 p.m. for a District 23 meeting at Post 120 located adjacent to the Biltmore Dairy Farms building.

District 23 Commander Alton W. Dixon said the meeting will feature a membership rally and the election of a new district commander and district vice commander.

Five Fires Are Reported

Kings Mountain firemen battled three fires Monday and two Tuesday.

Monday's calls included a chimney fire at the home of Willie Greason, 803 Fourth Street. No damage was reported.

Also on Monday, the department extinguished a field fire on Floyd Street and a trash fire on North Dilling Street.

Tuesday, the firemen doused a field fire on a vacant lot on Katherine Avenue and a furnace fire at the home of Betty Merritt, 827 Ramseur Street. Damage to the Merritt home was estimated at $50.
