All proceeds are for church benefit.

Car Show Stated Saturday At KMHS

Tickets for the KMSHS annual car show are on sale in the Principal's office. The show will begin at noon Saturday. The cost of the tickets is $1.50.

Any student who is interested in going to New York on May 2 and 3 with Mrs. Betsy Wells and the Drama Club need to see Mrs. Wells as soon as possible for necessary arrangements.

Guest applications for the Junior-Senior prom must be completed with a $5.00 fee to Tim Echols by April 6. Students may obtain applications from homeroom teachers.

Cast members practiced the entire senior class play, "A Hillbilly Weddin" Tuesday. Mrs. Wells, KMSHS Drama Club teacher and sponsor, is directing the play.

The High-Q Team was defeated by Harding High Saturday in the second round of High-Q with a score of 140-150. The third and final round of High-Q will be shown on television Saturday.

The senior class received gold and black T-shirts with a ziggy decal stating—It's Hard to be Humble and be a Senior. The profit from the $4.00 shirts will be used for the senior class gift.

Seniors received print-outs from the Josten's Company concerning the cost of their invitations and jewelry. The $9.25 cap and gown fee is not included on the print outs. The total amount is due on April 15 when seniors will receive these items.

Alert to breast cancer

Breast self-examination is often performed incorrectly. If you have any doubts as to the correct procedure for self-examination, clip this editorial and send to my Independent Pharmacists' Clipping Service, Box 5185, Raleigh, NC 27650 for an excellent booklet and direction sheet on breast self-examination.

Breast cancer kills more women than any other disease. Early detection, however, could save lives. Do you know how to give yourself a correct breast exam?

I suggest you get this booklet offer. It may be a crucial decision on your part.
