

Diane Williams Honor Athlete

Diane Williams won the Kings Mountain High School honor athlete award at the Shelby Sports Hall of Fame Banquet Monday night at Gardner-Webb College.

Katherine Reynolds, former Shelby High girls basketball coach, was inducted into the Hall of Fame, where she joins her husband, Bob Reynolds, former assistant football coach at Shelby High.

Williams was cited for her athletic ability and academic record at KMHS, where she ranks sixth in a senior class of 273. She was All-Southwestern Conference in volleyball and basketball and also participates in track and softball. She was SWC Player of the Year in volleyball as a junior and was runner-up in the Player of the Year voting in basketball this season.

Several other KMHS athletes won certificates of merit, including Bridget Glass in basketball, Markus Hager in football and Bernard Womic in cross country.

Williams is the second girl from KMHS to win the honor athlete award. Elizabeth Eaker won the honor five years ago. Eric Dixon was last year's winner.

Mickey Marvin, guard for the Oakland Raiders Superbowl championship team, was guest speaker for the event.

Jackson, Neely Golf Champs

The team of Stony Jackson and Linda Neely won first place in the first scheduled Scotch Foursome for the 1981 calendar sponsored by the Kings Mountain Women's Golf Association Sunday afternoon at Kings Mountain Country Club.

The winning team of Jackson and Neely had a score of 39 for the nine-hole tournament.

Carol Ledford and Margaret Williams and Mike Dixon, Jr. and Ginie Arnette tied at 43 for second place. Winning the prize in a play-off decision on the score card were the Dixon and Arnette team.

Mike Neely and Doris Cloninger won the prize for best poker hand with four sevens. Carol Ledford and Margaret Williams were awarded the prize for low putts with 17 putts.

The prize for best sports went to Bill and Brenda Sellers and Toby Williams and Sue Ann Cloninger.

Twenty members participated in the event. Tournament chairmen and spokesman for the event, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, said that the next Tournament will be a Captain's choice on May 3. It will be mixed teams, men and women, playing 18 holes. Starting time will be 1:30 p.m. Members may check the 1981 KM Country Club Tournament schedule for the golfing events coming up.

A Texas cat named Dusty copped the kitten record in June, 1952 when she had her 420th.

Morganton Run Set

A new date and new starting time are the keynotes to the Fourth Annual News Herald Mini-Marathon in Morganton, N.C.

The starter's gun will go off at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, May 2 to start the 10-kilometer (6.2 miles) and 20-kilometer races. Winding through the streets of Morganton, the race will start and finish near The News Herald office in downtown Morganton.

Last year's race, like the two before, was run on the first Sunday in May at 2 p.m. But hot mid-afternoon temperatures last year forced race officials to change the starting time to a more pleasurable a.m. beginning.

Race Director Layne Prebor says the new starting time is ideal for area runners and will give them an excellent chance to set a personal record.

A one-mile fun-run will initiate the festivities at 9 a.m. Again this year, a large computer digital clock at the finish line will aid in time tabulating.

Advanced registration is $3. After April 20, registration is $5. Runners may also register the day of the race.

Race applications are available at The News Herald or from any Table Rock Runners Club member — co-sponsors of the event. For further information, contact Prebor at The News Herald, P.O. Box 280, Morganton, N.C., 28655, or call 437-2161.

KM Golfers In Tourney

Five women from the Kings Mountain Country Club Women's Golf Association participated in the Foothills Tournament held at Carmel Country Club Thursday, April 9.

A field of 74 golfers representing 13 area country clubs participated in the 18 hole tournament. A luncheon and awards presented followed the tournament in the clubhouse dining room.

Those attending the Charlotte club event from Kings Mountain were Lib Mayes, Margaret Williams, Connie Ledford, Anne Pouchak, and Ethel Tignor.

Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, spokesman for the KM Women's Golf Association, announced that the next Foothills event will be held at Carolina Country Club in Charlotte Thursday, May 7.

Mrs. Jackson also reminds all women club members that a local membership campaign is now underway and anyone wishing to join the association which sponsors golf, bridge, and tennis should send their dues to Secretary-Treasurer Connie Ledford.

Local Womens Golf Day is every Thursday morning at 10 a.m.
