

FIRST PLACE WINNER - Roberta Young, KMSHS junior student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Young, is pictured with her model, Clarissa Spoon, in the Vocational Skills Competition recently at Central Piedmont Community College. Miss Young won first place in the contest. Her instructor is Lillian Whitworth.

SECOND PLACE WINNER - Pictured is the second place winner in the Vocational Skills Competition held recently at Central Piedmont Community College. Cindy Penner, senior at KMSHS and a cosmetology student of Lillian Whitworth, is shown with her model, Lynn Walters.

America's feet are in Dexter's hands.

Put your feet in our hands. Hand-sewn crepe casuals in the unerring Dexter style. Genuine leather sole and handsewn vamp. Crafted from the very finest leathers. Dexter handsewn casuals for your best foot forward.

$40<sup>00</sup>

Dexter
Shoemakers to America

FULTON'S

DOWNTOWN KINGS MOUNTAIN
117 W. Mtn. St.
Phone 739-2366

Board Meeting Today

Kings Mountain District Board of Education will hear proposed changes in the ESEA Title I program and discuss a wide variety of other school subjects at Thursday's meeting at 4:30 p.m. in the Board Room of the Administrative Building.

The meeting has been rescheduled early in the afternoon in order not to conflict with Holy Week and Maundy Thursday services.

Students who participated recently in the Presidential Classroom in Washington, D.C. will be recognized.

The tentative agenda includes a request for continuation of support of the Amity Aide program, a request from the Kings Mountain Tennis Association, a request from the North Carolina Symphony, a request for approval of budget transfers, reexamination of the new student transfer policy relative to item four, change of residence; recommendations regarding personnel examination and action for appeals regarding the pupil assignment policy, request for transfers to and from the KM School District, introduction of a local bill regarding uniform pay date, information on cheerleader elections at KM Senior High, and proposed changes in the ESEA Title I program by Larry Allen.

Explorers Cop Award At Show

Kings Mountain Medical Explorer Post 412 copped the blue ribbon at the annual Piedmont Council Scout Show Saturday at Cleveland County Fairgrounds.

The young people led a CPR course of instruction and administered free blood pressure checkups to about 100 citizens during the event in which seven local members participated.

Twenty groups exhibited in the event. It was the first time for the Kings Mountain club, which meets regularly at Kings Mountain Hospital, to take part.

Myers Printing, Joe Speight of the Cleveland County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Dr. Sam Robinson and Kings Mountain Hospital assisted the local chapter with supplies.

Each citizen who passed through the blood pressure clinic was given a card with the date that his blood pressure clinic was given a card with the date that his blood pressure was checked.

Rhonda Bolton, of the KM Hospital staff and the Explorer Post Advisor, accompanied the local group to Shelby. Participating Explorers were Chub Cobb, Teresa Leonhart, Heather Crowley, Boo Robinson, club vice president, Daune Brazzell, Janet Blair, Susan Tessner and Sandy Appling.

Class Play Success

The Senior class presented "A Hillbilly Weddin" last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights in Barnes Auditorium. Mrs. Betsy Wells, Drama instructor, directed the cast. Members attended a cast party following the Saturday night performance.

Students with a driver's license who are interested in taking the classroom work for school bus driving should sign up in the office.

Any student interested in being on the annual staff next year should see Joe Rountree in room 117.

Sophomores and Juniors who wish to run for an SPO office, or a class office next year need to

Bake-Off Champion

Terry Conner, KMSHS senior and daughter of Troy and Jean Conner of Kings Mountain, is winner of the 12th annual Buttermilk Biscuit Bake-Off at Kings Mountain Senior High School.

As the top winner, Miss Conner will represent KMSHS in the county-wide contest to be held Tues., Apr. 28, at the Cleveland County Office Building. She received a $10 cash prize from Carolina Dairy and Yelton Milling Co., co-sponsors of the contest. Miss Conner has been a homemaking student for two years.

Runner-up in the competition, in which 15 students participated Tuesday, was Marti Bishop, a senior student, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McPherson and a first year home economics student. She received a $7 cash prize.

Second runner-up was Lynn Cox, a junior student and a first year homemaking student. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox received a $5 cash prize.

First place winners from KMSHS, Burns, Crest, and Shelby High Schools will participate in the county-wide Bake-Off at which the winner will receive $100, the second place winner $25, and the third place winner $15.

Contestants bake biscuits from their favorite recipe and using Yelton's Best Flour and Carolina Dairy Golden Flake Buttermilk, both Cleveland County products.

Judges for the local Bake-off were KMSHS Principal Bob McRae and KMSHS home economics instructor Betty Gamble.

The winning recipe combined 3 cups Yelton's Best Self-Rising Flour, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup buttermilk mixed with one teaspoon yeast and one teaspoon sugar. Miss Conner cut in the shortening and poured in the buttermilk mixture. After mixing, she kneaded six to eight times and baked for 12 minutes in 450 degree oven.

KMHS News

By JANICE SCOGGINS

sign up in the office. Voter registration for these elections began Wednesday in the commons area during lunch. Students must register to vote.

Seniors received caps, gowns, invitations, and other senior accessories from the Josten's company Wednesday.

Seniors completed Last Will and Testament forms for the Mountaineer staff Wednesday during homeroom.

Juniors and sophomores registered for their next year's classes Wednesday. Anyone who is interested in changing registration forms or did not register Wednesday should see Mrs. Carolyn McWhirter as soon as possible.

Interested seniors are planning a non-school sponsored trip to Six Flags over Georgia for May 8 and May 15. School buses will not be taken. Tickets are $12.95 at the gate, but with a group order of 25 or more, the tickets will be $10.95.

Angie McKinney was selected as a state finalist for the North Carolina Miss National Teenager Pageant to be held at Meredith College in Raleigh. Champions Contracting Company of Kings Mountain is sponsoring her. Judging of the contestants will be based on contestant essays, poise leadership, personality and appearance. The winner will attend the Miss National Teenager contest to represent North Carolina.

Jolanta Milewski presented a program for the FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes) members Monday. Members also purchased FCA patches and pins.

Sophomores and Juniors who wish to audition for the KMSHS choir for next year should see Gene Bumgardner for his approval.

Students interested in the tutorial program for 1981-82 school year should see Miss Lavene for an application.

Students will be dismissed Thursday at 1:00 for the Spring break. There will be no school Friday, April 17, Monday April 20, and Tuesday, April 21.

CAROLINA POOLS & PATIOS
Gastonia, N.C.
"We Build The Best & Service The Best"
TAKE ADVANTAGE OF EARLY BUY SPECIALS NOW
POOLS - SPAS - HOT TUBS
PACKAGES FOR DO IT YOURSELFERS
WE HAVE COMPUTER WATER ANALYSIS - POOL CHEMICALS AND SUPPLIES

1312 W. Second Ave.      Oaktree Plaza - Formerly Gaston Mall
865-9586      861-0065

Step softly into Spring in White Stag

You'll be ready to step into a new season in White Stag's beautifully colored knit coordinates. The Cappy top and Encore skirt, with fully elasticized waistband, are both fashioned in a carefree blend of 50% Celanese Fortrel® polyester, 50% cotton.

Fortrel® is a trademark of Fiber Industries, Inc., a subsidiary of Celanese Corporation.

Top - Beige, White & Coral
$15.00

Shir - Beige, White & Coral
$30.00

FULTON'S

117 W. Mtn. Street
739-2366

For My Sister,
Evelyn Ross

*As I often reminisce of our childhood days,
I find myself thankful, in so many ways.*

*For a sister so loving, thoughtful and dear,
Who filled my every moment, with laughter
& cheer.*

*You gave me your kindness, & showed you cared
There was always a closeness, the 2 of us shared.*

*I'll always remember the bad time we went through
I could not have conquered them, if it weren't for you.*

*With heart so caring, and always true,
You changed many of my gray skies to blue.*

*I love you Dear Sister, with all my heart
And Thank You enough, I could not even start.*

Happy Birthday,
Wanda

Pd. Adv.