Mr. and Mrs. James Crenshaw Crenshaws Honored On 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Carlton Crenshaw of Graham were honored Sunday, March 29th, on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Crenshaw, a Kings Mountain native, is the former Cleo Parrish, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parrish of Dilling St. The Crenshaws were married Mar. 29, 1931 in South Carolina. They are parents of three children and eight grandchildren.

The reception was held from 2 until 4 p.m. at Mount Pleasant Methodist Church in McLeansville. Hosts for the occasion were their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Livingood and Mr. and Mrs. J. Winburn Lowdermilk of Greensboro. A son, Douglas Crenshaw, of Columbia, S. C., was unable to attend.

Guests were greeted by the honored couple. Mrs. Louise Crenshaw, sister-in-law, presided at the register and presented each guest with a scroll secured by a gold ring, in the form of a thank you note printed in gold.

Mrs. Crenshaw was presented a white orchid to complement her shrimp colored silk georgette dress. She wore a single strand of pearls and a heart-shaped necklace, gift of her husband.

The refreshment table was covered with a white floor-length lace cloth decorated with gold bows and white wedding bells. Gold candles surrounded by snapdragons, daisies and gold and white pompons were used as the central arrangement. Windows were decorated with buttercups and summer greenery. Large plants were placed at intervals to enhance the setting. Soft music was played in the background.

Gifts were opened and displayed by Misses April and Janeen Strickland of Raleigh, granddaughters of the honored couple. Mrs. Nelline Parrish of Burlington, sister of Mrs. Crenshaw, presided at the punch bowl.

A round table held the five-tier anniversary cake surrounded by flowers and entwined with ivy. After the couple cut and served the first piece of cake to each other it was served to guests.

Mrs. Don Swain assisted in serving ham biscuits, nuts, mints, and cheese hearts to guests.

Goodbyes were said by Richard, Eric, and David Lowdermilk, grandsons of the couple.

Memorial Day Slated

Oak Grove Baptist Church, Route 3, Kings Mountain, will celebrate Memorial Day May 24.

The event is being held the fourth Sunday of May this year instead of the third, which has been the past tradition.

A covered dish dinner will be held in the fellowship hall following the regular morning worship hour.

The church will provide tea, coffee and utensils.

Rev. Mike Goudeok, pastor, and the congregation invite the public to attend.

Can Do Run Slated

First Citizens Bank and the West School Parent-Teacher Organization will co-sponsor a youth day Saturday at the Kings Mountain Senior High Stadium, 500 Phifer Road.

Slated as 'Can Do Youth Day', the activities will include races and a variety of field events. All children aged kindergarten through Fifth grade are invited to participate.

Events start promptly at 10 a.m.

Tee shirts will be given to all participants and awards will be presented for first, second, and third place in all events.

Hot dogs, popcorn, potato chips, and soft drinks will be available and drawings for prizes donated by local merchants will also be held.

The registration fee is $2.00 and qualifies the entrant to participate in all events. Registration forms are available in First Citizens offices in Kings Mountain, Polkville, Shelby, Bessemer City, Gastonia, Lincolnton, Cliffside, Forest City, Hickory and Morganton.
