

Hat Day At B-W Eggciting

In your Easter bonnet with all the frills upon it... And they were. All Bethware students and teachers paraded in a variety of Easter hats and bonnets on the closing day of school before spring vacations began.

The winners were Lee Bell, Billy Lawrence, Tessie Ruff, Kim Wells, Randi Carroll, Ty Ross, Nikki Crane, Carl Carter, Wayne Roberts, Grant Holder, Melissa Hambricht, Tandra Leftwich, Nicole Blackwood, Tammy Milton, Robbie Hale, Jim Thompson, Frankie Moore, Allison Bumgardner, Paula Morris, Lavise Murphy, Mike White, Pam Conner, and Dallas Stacey.

Julienne Hambricht won the prize among the teachers and Linda Ellis copped the prize among aides.

"It was really a fun day", said Principal Ronald Nanney who said that the hat show is an annual event and the pupils decorate their hats with everything from eggs to bunny rabbits.

Visit Niece

Mr. and Mrs. Nevette Hughes spent the Easter holidays with their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Canady and son, Brian, in Fayetteville. Mrs. Canady is the former Joan Gayle Cadieu.

Also visiting the Canadys during the weekend were Mrs. Canady's mother, Mrs. Ruth Cadieu, and Mrs. Canady, brother, Charles Roy Cadieu, both of Charleston, S.C. and Mrs. Canady's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Gaffney and Jane of Raleigh.

The family enjoyed an Easter reunion on Sunday.

Returning to Kings Mountain on Monday the Hugheses stopped in Hamlet to visit Albert McLellan and in Lumberton to visit former Kings Mountain residents, Mr. and Mrs. B.N. Barnes.

Jr. High Girls Win

Kings Mountain Junior High's girls softball team took over sole possession of first place in the Western Association standings Thursday when it defeated East McDowell 6-3.

Dana Blalock hurled the win and her teammates backed her with a nine-hit attack. KM also took advantage of seven East errors.

Spring Young and Jeanelle Parker led the KM hitting with two hits each. Joanna Boheler and Melinda Roberts hit home runs.

The Lady Patriots travel to Crest Monday.

Blair Speaks

Dr. Charles Blair, Kings Mountain dentist, will speak on "Tips On Avoiding Income Tax" at a Planned Giving Seminar to be hosted by Erskine College for alumni and friends Thursday evening, April 30th, at Airport Holiday Inn, Charlotte.

Call collect 803-379-8723 or 803-379-8574 or write Dr. C. Linwood Cheshire, Jr., director, Planned Deferred Giving, Erskine College, Due West, S.C., if you plan to attend.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Kings Mountain Woman's Club will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. The program will be "How To Avoid The Film Flam Artist" by Det. Richard Reynolds and Det. Robert Dodge of the Kings Mountain Police Department.

Kiwanians To Sponsor Talent Show

Kings Mountain Kiwanis Club will sponsor the 23rd annual Schools Talent Show Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in B. N. Barnes Auditorium.

Students in Kindergarten through Seventh Grades will perform in the show which will feature winners from the various elementary schools. Prizes will be presented to winners in each category of the show.

Guest performers will be entertainers Sharon Putnam, Jeff Putnam, and Tommy Cobb. Radio Station WKMT Manager Jonas Bridges will be master of ceremonies.

Admission is one dollar per person.

The jewels in a jewel watch are usually rubies or sapphires.

Friends Seeking Help For Burned-Out Victim

Friends of a burned-out family are asking the public to donate furnishings, clothing, and linens to the family of Mrs. Omie McLean whose home on West Mountain Street was almost totally destroyed by fire Easter evening.

Mrs. McLean lost all her possessions in the blaze which was believed to have been caused by lightning, firemen said.

Mildred Jackson, of No. 53 Pine Manor Apartments, and Rosa Black, of No. 62 Pine Manor Apartments, are soliciting funds and household articles for the victims. The two friends can be reached at 739-5331 or 739-8613.
