Get the Best of Yourself

By Carol Ann McEwen
1980 Mrs. America

Although they frame the eyes, eyebrows are an oft-forgotten feature in many beauty routines. Brush your brows daily with a "recycled" toothbrush, first against the growth, then up. Then guide the ends into place and apply just a bit of lip conditioner to keep them there.

To find the hair and skin products best suited to you, consult a professional. Redken products, the ones I use, are so popular with experts that they are sold only by beauty salons, so you know you're getting what is right for you. Hairdressers can couple Redken's tradition of "beauty through science" with artistry. To find out where Redken products are sold, call, toll-free, 800-423-5369.

For healthier skin and a more radiant complexion, don't play with fire. Stay out of the sun and stop smoking. If you must have a tan, proceed slowly with maximum caution and lots of sunscreen. Cigarette smoking is increasingly linked to crow's feet, lines around the lips, wrinkles and general skin deterioration. Beauty is only skin-deep—so protect and pamper yours.

FACTS & FIGURES

The United States now relies on foreign countries for half the oil we use. That amounts to one quarter of all the energy we consume.

This, say the experts who are sponsoring American Energy Week, March 15-21, 1981, jeopardizes our economy and our independence. Fortunately, they point out, the United States is blessed with abundant coal, oil, gas and uranium and a technological strength and spirit of innovation that can lead to new energy alternatives.

Many concerned Americans are signing and circulating a Declaration of Energy Independence. For free copies of the Declaration and free leaflets about energy and American Energy Week, write to American Energy Week, 1111 19th Street, N.W., Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20036.
