ROBERT HAL HOLLAND
Funeral services for Robert Hal Holland, 57, of 816 W. Gold St., who died Thursday in the Kings Mountain Hospital, were conducted Saturday at 4 p.m. from Harris Funeral Home Chapel by Rev. Buddy Williams, interment following in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Mr. Holland was a retired Seaboard Railroad Company employee. He was a veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Charcie Cook Holland; two sons, Bruce Holland of Earl and Ronnie Holland of Blacksburg, S.C.; two daughters, Mrs. James Adams of Orangeburg, S.C. and Mrs. Linda Haskins of Kings Mountain; his mother, Mrs. Boyce Holland of Lattimore; one brother, Tom Holland of Boiling Springs; one sister, Mrs. Carolyn Rollins of Shelby; seven grandchildren.

Harris Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MRS. ELIZABETH BAKER
Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth La Rue Baker, 57, of 5112 W. Wendover Dr., Greensboro, who died Saturday in Wesley Long Hospital after several year's illness, were conducted Monday afternoon at 3 p.m. from Parkwood Baptist Church in High Point, interment following in Floral Garden Park. The Rev. Mr. Clegg officiated at the rites.

Surviving are her husband, Walter J. Baker of Greensboro; three sons, Sidney Paul Baker of Reidsville, Douglas Scott Baker of Greensboro and Walter Donnell Baker of High Point; one daughter, Ms. Jo Lynn Land of Kings Mountain; three brothers and one sister.

Masters Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MRS. LETHA SANDERS
Funeral services for Mrs. Letha Sanders, 60, of 519 Ligon Street in Shelby, will be conducted Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. from Calvary Baptist Church by Rev. Dan Wallace, interment following in Double Springs Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mrs. Sanders died Sunday in the Cleveland Memorial Hospital at Shelby after several years illness.

She was a former resident of Kings Mountain and a member of Calvary Baptist Church. She was daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Sanders.

Surviving are her son, Jerry Sanders of Cherryville; one brother, John Sanders of Shelby and two grandchildren.

Harris Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Eight Students On Dean's List

Eight Kings Mountain area students are listed on the Chancellor's List for the 1981 spring semester at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

To qualify for the Chancellor's List, students must maintain a "B" average with no grade lower than "C".

Franklin Yates Goare, of Kings Mountain, a senior, completed the semester with straight "A" average.

The Kings Mountain National Park continues its summer season of weekend evening programs on Friday and Saturday, June 26th and 27th, at 8 p.m., in the National Park Visitor Center Auditorium.

Friday, June 26th, Park Interpreter Adrienne Rish presents "Herbal Essence," a program combining the use of slides and narration and offering a chance to learn what common and uncommon plants of the area are medicinally valuable and/or serve as food substances. Recipes and medicinal uses of various herbs and plants will be cited. Ms. Rish, a second-year Park seasonal, is a rising senior political science and history double major at South Carolina State College.

Saturday, June 27th, amateur herpetologist Dr. Joseph Talley, of Shelby, North Carolina, presents "Don't Tread On Me," a look at the myths and folklore surrounding the snakes common to this region. In addition to discussing the habits and differences of poisonous and non-poisonous reptiles, Dr. Talley will also exhibit several specimens taken from his vast collection of serpents. This program is perennially one of the most popular of the Park's summer offerings. Dr. Talley is a full-time family practitioner in Grover, North Carolina.

Weather permitting, the Living History program will also continue on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. A small Revolutionary War campsite will be set up near the Visitor Center and tended by Park employees in Revolutionary period dress. 18th century rifle and musket demonstrations will be given at 1 p.m., 2 p.m., 3 p.m., and 4 p.m. Also, the 178-year old Howser House will be open for visitation on Sunday afternoons from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. A member of the interpretive staff will be stationed at the House to reveal the history behind this locally famous rock structure.

Other ongoing daily activities include:

an 18-minute film "Kings

Mountain-Turning Point in the South" an 11-minute audio-visual museum tour
1.5 mile Battlefield Trail
16 mile system of hiking trails

10 mile Horse Trail
The public is encouraged and invited to attend all programs.

There are no admission fees for any of the activities.
