Neal Opens Realty Shop

A Kings Mountain man, Dan Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neal of Shelby Road, has opened the first real estate store in Charlotte at South Park Shopping Mall.

According to Neal, "the walk in potential is going to be very, very good."

What Neal is talking about is literally a real estate office in the covered mall beside a furniture shop and flanked by Morrison's Cafeteria. He is combining high visibility and retail sales in an office which looks like a showroom. Neal, an English major at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, says he planned it that way.

Neal said that when he designed the office at the mall he wanted to create an atmosphere without sales pressure. With his location, he says he can't help put pull in some of the passers-by. Neal said that approximately 30,000 shoppers stroll in the mall each week.

Neal founded Best Sellers Realty. He was formerly associated with Merrill Lynch Realty Townsend Co. in Charlotte.

Best Sellers is linked with other real estate brokers in Charlotte by a computer service provided by the Charlotte Board of Realtors. He said the company can offer a customer anything on the market through his showroom office. The office is operated from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. every day except Sunday and on Sundays from noon to 9:30 p.m. The firm is staffed by 10 brokers.

Newest weapon against death by accident (leading cause for people under 30): the shock trauma center. This is a super emergency center where specially trained doctors and nurses fight shock-loss of circulation to the body's tissues--that is more damaging than injuries themselves.

Research specialists expect membership in Health Maintenance Organizations (which are prepaid group medical practices) to triple by 1990.

Too much caffeine in the diet of pregnant rats causes skeletal abnormality in their offspring in a recent study. The FDA recommends sparing use of the substance.

Vitamin E is being used against eye diseases that follow diabetic and sickle cell disorders, according to researchers.

Home remedy: painful sunburn can be eased by splashing the affected area with apple cider vinegar and rubbing lightly.

We've got analgesic creams and ointments, too, at RAY'S. But be smart: don't overdo your sunning, and protect your skin with a sunscreen.
