Auburn University on June 9th. She is employed by Caudle Animal Hospital in Charlotte.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ray Hughes, Sr. of Kings Mountain and grandson of Mrs. Dewey Caldwell of Kings Mountain and the late Mr. Caldwell and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hughes. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, and received his MBA from Auburn University School of Business. He is employed as a credit analyst for ITT.

Mrs. D. C. Payseur, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the guest register.

Paternal aunts and uncles of the bridegroom entertained at a cookout at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Hughes on Dixon Road. Hamburgers with all the accompaniments were served along with assorted desserts from a long table. A beautiful arrangement of white daisy mums and long-stemmed red roses in a natural colored straw basket was the centerpiece. Gifts were given to the honored pair.

Mrs. D.C. Payseur, Mrs. John Caldwell and Mrs. David Caldwell entertained at a drop-in shower on May 24th at the home of Mrs. Payseur. Guests called between 4 and 6 p.m. Refreshments were served from the dining area. The table featured melon balls in a fluted watermelon, chicken salad tarts, ribbon sandwiches, relish tray, lemon tarts and punch.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Gene Yarboro hosted a steak supper at their home in Shelby. On arriving, pickups were served. Guests were then served their steaks in the den.

Guests included parents of the bride and groom, friends the bride-to-be works with in Charlotte and Yarboro family members.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Queen and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Briley entertained the bride with a steak dinner at Kelly's. They presented Miss Plonk with wedding gifts.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner on Friday evening at Holiday Inn. Members of the wedding party, family and friends attended.

The decorations included white mums with yellow daisy mums, centered with a candle and trailing ivy. The centerpiece for the U-shaped table was a beautiful arrangement of mixed spring flowers with candles. This arrangement was a special gift to the engaged couple from Conrad Hughes who made the arrangement.

Toss salad, roast beef, potatoes, and green beans were served along with cherry cobbler for dessert.

A wedding breakfast was hosted by the bride's paternal aunts and uncles Saturday at 12:30 in the Fellowship Hall of Resurrection Lutheran Church.

Entertaining were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Isley, Mr. and Mrs. Wray Plonk, Dr. and Mrs. George Plonk and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Plonk, Jr.

Tomato juice cocktails were served in the Ladies Parlor, after which a three-course breakfast was served in the Fellowship Hall.

Arrangements of shasta daisies were used on the tables along with gazebos containing miniature bride and groom.

A yellow and white color scheme was used throughout the hall.

Olivers Are Honored In Shelby

Miss Cindy Oliver and Mrs. Dennis Panther honored their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oliver, on their 25th wedding anniversary. The reception was held Tuesday night at the couple's home on Providence Road in Shelby.

Party foods were served from a table centered with an arrangement of spring flowers. A crystal punch bowl was placed on one end of the table and at the opposite end was a two-tiered wedding cake decorated with spring flowers and a 25th wedding emblem on top.

Mrs. John L. Hughes and Mrs. Lawrence Oliver assisted in serving. Guests were Mrs. Bessie Oliver, mother of Mr. Oliver, and members of the immediate family.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver were married June 16, 1956 at First Baptist Church in Grover by the Rev. W. F. Monroe. Mrs. Oliver is the former Shirley Hughes of the Dixon Community, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hughes.
