Wedding Bells To Ring

MR. AND MRS. BRYAN MITCHELL NORRIS
(Dana Michele (Shelly) Moss)

Church of God Ceremony Unites Miss Moss, Mr. Norris

Dana Michele (Shelly) Moss and Bryan Mitchell Norris exchanged wedding vows June 28 at the Kings Mountain Church of God. Rev. Kenneth Looney officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Rev. William T. Moss of Bethune, S.C., gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a Victorian gown with high neckline, lace on bodice, long Bishop sleeves and a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white and dark pink daisies with baby's breath on a white Bible, edged in white lace.

The sanctuary was decorated with mixed pastel flowers, a candelabra with greenery, and a prayer bench holding a unity candle.

Delores White presented a program of organ music and sang "Whither Thou Goest", "The Wedding Song" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Lorri Moss, sister of the bride, served as the Maid of Honor. She wore a beige dress and carried yellow carnations. Brenda Hardy, the bride's aunt, presided at the guest register.

Flower girl was Jennefer Moss, sister of the bride.

Mitchell Norris was his son's best man. Usher was Roosevelt

Cooper of Kings Mountain, the groom's uncle.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece lilac blend dress with a white carnation corsage, and the groom's mother chose a two-piece pink linen dress with a white carnation corsage.

For her going-away dress, the bride chose a light blue, two-piece linen dress and a corsage of white carnations tipped in light blue.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn., the newlyweds are at home at 116 Fulton Drive, Kings Mountain.
