2nd LT. ROY HAMMETT

Second Lt. Roy S. Hammett, 40, of Route 2, Kings Mountain, is an eight-year veteran with the Kings Mountain Rescue Squad.

He is a certified Emergency Medical Technician, has taken the Emergency Vehicle Operation Control Course, and is certified as an Ambulance CPR technician through the Heart Association. He has taken the Radiological Monitoring Course which certifies him to check the amount of radioactivity in the county, if necessary, and he is trained in the operation of the Jaws of Life (Hurst Power Tool), which is a $6,000 piece of equipment which frees pinned-in victims from cars, plows, planes and other vehicles.

He is a paid employee of the squad from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. five days a week, and is a volunteer 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

He is an Army veteran, and served with the Army's first aid team for four years. He became interested in lifesaving as a teenager, when he served as a lifeguard and took courses in water safety.

"I've been interested in it since I was a boy," he says. "I want to help the community to the best of my ability and I want everyone to know they're taken care of in times of an emergency."

Hammett is married to the former Linda Garris and has two sons, Shane and Craig.
