

Stocks Class Slated

DALLAS—Gaston College will offer, for the first time, a two-section class on Stocks and Investments. The class will begin in the Fall with the first section beginning on September 14, through October 12.

The second section will begin on October 19, and will run through November 16. In order to receive the two hour credit, students must take both sections of the Stocks and Investment Seminar/Workshop study. The classes will meet on Mondays from 5:30 p.m. until 9:20 p.m.

The Stocks and Investment Seminar/Workshop will be taught by Reggie Hundley of Edward D. Jones and Company, Gastonia. Edward D. Jones and Company is a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

Registration will be held during the regular Fall Quarter Registration on Thursday, September 3, in the Myers Center on the Gaston College Campus. Registration hours are from 8:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. For further information, call Gaston College, 922-3136.

Guyton Takes ROTC Training

Lanny D. Guyton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Guyton of Route 1, Kings Mountain, received practical work in military leadership at the Army ROTC Advanced Camp at Fort Bragg, N.C.

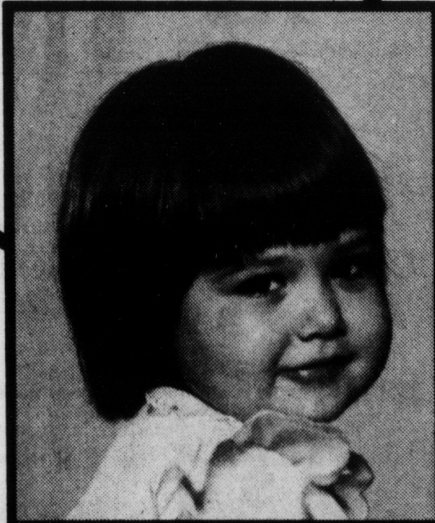

The six-week training includes instruction in first aid, communications, marksmanship, orienteering, weapons, weapons systems, defensive and offensive tactics, reconnaissance techniques and other areas.

Most cadets fulfill their advanced camp requirement during the summer between their junior and senior years in college. The successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from their respective college or university will result in the student's being commissioned a second lieutenant in the active Army or the U.S. Army Reserve or National Guard.

Guyton is a student at Gaston College, Dallas, N.C., and is receiving ROTC at Davidson College, N.C.
