bride and groom. Ringbearer was Kenny Bridges. He wore a miniature tux to match the groomsmen.

Sandra Broome of Kings Mountain, cousin of the groom, distributed programs. Linda McDaniel, sister-in-law of the groom, stood at the register and Mrs. Sherman Awtry of Griffin, Ga., aunt of the bride, directed the wedding.

The bride's mother chose a seaspray polyester knit gown featuring spaghetti straps and empire waistline. The gown was complemented by a detachable capelet of matching sheer polyester. She wore a white orchid at her shoulder.

The groom's mother selected a yellow chiffon silista gown styled with a natural waistline and full circular skirt. The bodice of the gown featured cap slit sleeves and a white lace insert. She also wore a white orchid at her shoulder.

The bride's parents hosted a reception following the wedding at the Oak Grove Baptist Church fellowship hall. The reception area was decorated with many live plants set in baskets on stands throughout the room. To further enhance the plants, in one corner of the room a picture of the bride was set on a painter's easel. The picture was given to the bride's parents. The bride's table, covered with an apricot tablecloth overlaid with lace, was the highlight of the decorations. The centerpiece was of silk white glads, apricot and yellow rosebuds, and baby's breath, set in a gold colored compote. The apricot and white three-tiered cake, draped with ruffles and apricot roses, with a cluster of roses and two small white doves on the second tier, and topped with a bride and groom, was placed on one end of the table, and a glass punch bowl was on the other end. The cake was made by Mrs. Martha Wright, aunt of the bridegroom. Punch, along with cheese straws, orange balls, nuts and mints, were served in glass appointments.

The refreshments were served by Mrs. Martha Wright, Mrs. Margie Dellinger, Mrs. Barbara Broome and Miss Colette Reynolds.

White rice bags, tied with apricot ribbons, were set at a smaller table and were later distributed by Miss Sandra Broome, Kenny Falls and Miss Dawn Jones.

An after-rehearsal supper was given by the groom's parents Friday night at the home of the bride's parents. All attendants and members of the wedding party attended the informal cookout.

For her wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, the bride chose a kelly green skirt with matching leisure blouse and lifted the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Following their honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside on Route 5, Kings Mountain.
