

Textile Week Proclaimed

PROCLAMATION TEXTILE WEEK

WHEREAS, It is appropriate that we recognize the substantial economic and social contributions of the textile industry in our community;

WHEREAS, We recognize that the North Carolina textile industry provides directly over 250,000 jobs and some $2 billion in annual payroll, and indirectly generates thousands of other jobs and millions of dollars in payroll through related industries, which depend heavily upon textiles; and

WHEREAS, It is a fact that textiles provide 853,080 jobs and annual payroll of $78,413,321 in Kings Mountain and Cleveland County, and apparel manufacturing adds additional jobs and extensive payroll to the Cleveland County Economy; and

WHEREAS, It is in the best interests of our community, county, and state that we maintain a healthy, dynamic textile industry;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Henry Moss, Mayor of the City of Kings Mountain, proclaim this week of October 19-25, 1981 as in Kings Mountain, and respectfully request that we take advantage of this occasion to learn more about the textile industry, through the many activities that will be offered during this period.

NORTH CAROLINA TEXTILE WEEK

Witness my signature and the Seal of Kings Mountain, this, the 19th day of October, 1981.
John Henry Moss

Photo by Gary Stewart

TEXTILE WEEK - Mayor John Henry Moss presents a proclamation to local industrial leaders declaring this week "Textile Week in Kings Mountain." Left to right are Paul Dover of Tultex Yarns, Dan Grady of Burlington, Alex McCallum of Spectrum, Moss, and Lavon Strickland and Bernard Harvey of Parkdale Mills.

GETS AWARD-Pictured is William Stafford (right), employee of Spectrum Fibers, Inc. in the Winding Maintenance Department, receiving his Five Year Service Award. Presenting the award is Tom McAllister - Winding Maintenance Supervisor.

Mauney Hosiery Mills, Inc.

Announces

THE CO. STORE

Southside Of Mill — Elm Street

Tuesday-Friday — 11 A.M.-4 P.M.

Men's, Boy's, And Ladies Hosiery

Tultex Yarns

Ring and Open-end Spun Cotton,
Synthetics and Blended Yarns,
Single and Plied,
Combed and Carded.

Plants located at Kings Mountain
Lowell
Roxboro Longhurst
Rockingham

Tultex Yarn Group 6 Professional Plaza, Gastonia, NC 28052 704-864-7701

TEXTILES

TOUCHING OUR LIVES TOTALLY

Textile Week 1981

We Proudly Salute

Our Employees

And

The Textile Industry

OUR PEOPLE

MAKE

THE DIFFERENCE

 Burlington Industries, Inc.

Phenix Plant
Kings Mountain, N.C.