

Annual Decorating Contest Brings Christmas Spirit To Kings Mountain Hospital

More Photos on Page 15-A

Patients and visitors to Kings Mountain Hospital are enjoying a brighter holiday season because of the spirit generated through the hospital staff's annual decorating contest.

Each Christmas season, the hospital departments and nursing stations decorate their areas and they are judged and prizes given to top two winners. Judges this year were members of one of Kings Mountain's garden clubs.

The decorations were judged for their originality, creativity, color scheme and materials used.

First place honors went to the Laboratory. Its employees received an engraved plaque and a box of mixed fruit.

Second place was the business office. Its employees received a box of mixed fruit.

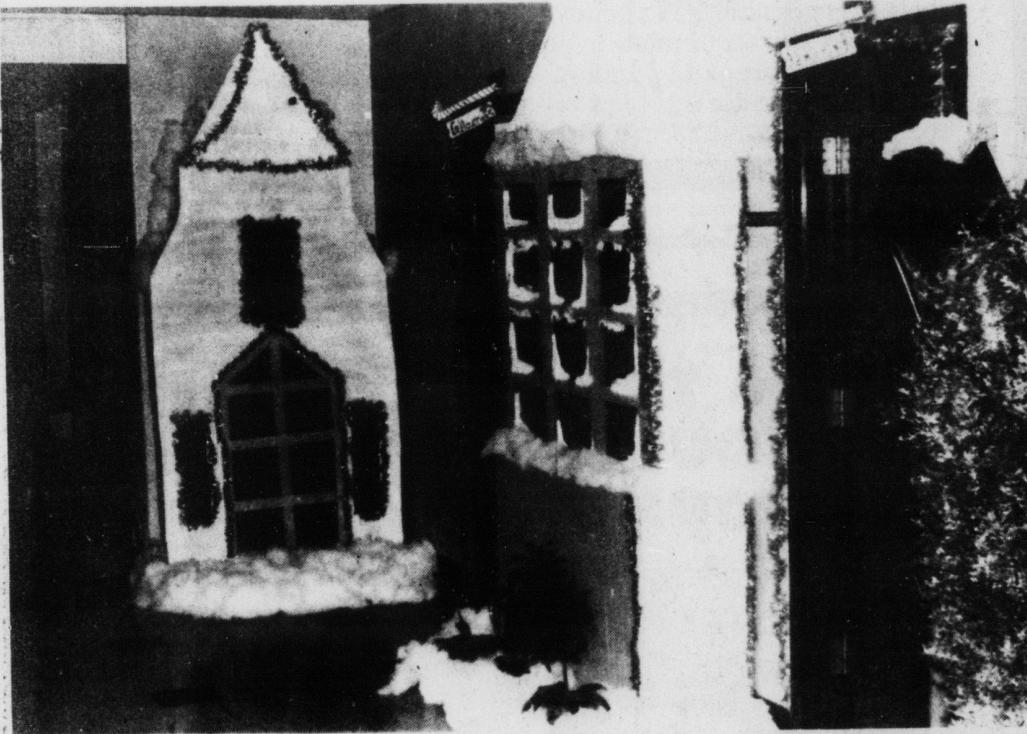

Other departments participating included the Labor and Delivery Room, North Station, West Station, Dietary Department, Radiology Department and East Station.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Kings Mountain Hospital Employee Christmas Dinner/Dance was held Thursday at the American Legion. A traditional feast was catered by Mrs. Hildreath Sherrer and following the meal, employees, members of the Board of Trustees, Medical Staff and guests danced to the music of the Howell Brothers Band of Cherryville.
