School
Spelling Winners

The annual Kings Mountain District Schools Spelling Bee will be held Monday afternoon at the Board of Education Room at the Superintendent's Office.

Winners from the five elementary schools, Central and Kings Mountain Junior High bees will compete for the right to represent the district in the annual Charlotte Observer Spelling Bee.

Individual KM winners include:

Grover School - Tracy Morrison, 11-year-old fifth grader, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Morrison of Grover. She is a student in Mrs. Steve Beam's room.

West - Michel Shan Conner, 11-year-old fifth grader and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Conner of Kings Mountain. He attends First Baptist Church, is active in R.A. and Young Musicians and plays on the C&C Metal basketball team.

Bethware - Ashley Champion, a fourth grader and daughter of Carl Champion of Kings Mountain. She is a student in Mrs. Susan White's room. She enjoys reading, swimming, sports and cheerleading and wants to be a teacher.

North - Candi Black, a fifth grader and daughter of Patricia and Johnny Black of Shelby Road, Kings Mountain. She is a student in Mrs. Beth Fender's class and spelled "beagle" to win the North spelling bee. She enjoys roller skating, swimming, drawing and reading.

East - Dale Greene, fifth grader and the son of Diane Allmond of Kings Mountain and Larry Greene of Gastonia. He is in Maxine Grayson's class and likes baseball.

Central - Kenney Potter, 11-year-old sixth grader and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Potter of Kings Mountain. He enjoys reading and singing and recently won first place in Central's talent show with a vocal rendition of "Pac-Man Fever."

Junior High - Jennifer Bradley, an eighth grader and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Bradley of Kings Mountain. Her hobbies are reading, swimming and bike riding.
