Grover Woman Injured In Saturday Car Wreck

Ella Mae Hoper Ross, 30, of Route 1, Grover, was critically injured Saturday night in a one-car accident on Rod 1102. She is in Charlotte Memorial Hospital with spinal injuries. Ruby Hopper, 37, of Route 1, was also injured and is listed in stable condition at Cleveland Memorial Hospital. The driver of the car, John Hopper Jr., 33, of Route 1, Grover, was treated and released at Cleveland Memorial. According to Trooper G.E. Mull of the State Highway Patrol, Hopper's car ran off the road, struck a power pole, ran through a field and overturned several times. Damages were estimated at $1,000 to the car and $500 to the power pole. Mull said that when the car ran off the road, the muffler flew off and struck a parked car in a driveway. The car was owned by Manning Spinkler. Damages were $350. Hopper was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor and driving while license revoked.

Grover Police Chief Reports Vandalism Acts

Grover Police Department reported two acts of vandalism over the weekend. Chief Mike Brown said that late Saturday night, someone entered the home of Margie A. White and caused an estimated $5,000 damage. Paint was thrown on the floors, tables broken, chairs slashed and several windows and other items broken. Sometime over the weekend, someone entered three buildings at Grover School, stealing approximately $15 worth of property and causing about $20 damage. Chief Brown said two juveniles were responsible and the case has been cleared.

CORTNEY FREDELL

Horse Show Set April 3

Kings Mountain Saddle Club will sponsor its first horse show of the season Sat., Apr. 3 beginning at 11 a.m. and continuing throughout the day. Intermission time will be 5 until 6 p.m. Forty-three classes of beautiful show horses will be judged, with competition for English, Western and Game horses. Judges will be Calvert Ray of Fayetteville (English) and Bob McCarthy of Chapin, S.C., (Western). High point trophies will be awarded in each of the three divisions and points accumulated will be credited toward the year-end High Point Awards which will be given at the close of the August show. The Kings Mountain Saddle Club is located off Waco Road, north of Kings Mountain. For further information, call 739-2108 or 739-8655. On show day, phone 739-7203.
