Ashley is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Falls Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Stone Jr. of Kings Mountain. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F.C. Ware, Mrs. Otis Falls Sr. and Mrs. Jack Bridges.

Workshop Set Here

of the Working Artist Guild, there will be on a small fee for supplies. For those who are not members of the Guild, there will be a small charge of $5 plus the supply fee. All participants should bring a sandwich for lunch.

The workshop will continue on Sunday afternoon from 1 until 5 p.m.

Persons who do not wish to participate but would like to look at displays and see Ms. Goslen and others at work are invited to attend.

Ms. Goslen will have some of her work on display at the Depot and also at A.B. Snow Originals, 3600 Margrace Road, all weekend. A reception will be held for Ms. Goslen at the A.B. Snow Studio Saturday evening. The public is welcome.

A quick and tasty cake frosting can be created if you mix chocolate syrup with prepared whipped topping.

Cakecutting Held Friday

Amy Ware and Tim Pearson, who were wed Saturday night, were honored at an after-rehearsal cakecutting party Friday night in the fellowship hall of Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Guests included the members of the wedding party, friends and relatives of the couple. Hostesses were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ware.

The table was decorated with a candleabrum arrangement of daisies, snaps and baby's breath. A crystal punch bowl was on one end of the table, which was covered with a white lace tablecloth and ribbon bows. On the other end was a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with daisies and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Cake and punch were served, along with chicken salad pastries, cheese wafers, mints and nuts.

The bride and groom chose this time to present gifts to their attendants. Approximately 75 guests attended.
