HOME AND FARM AGENTS VISIT US

ALSO TWO

EXTENSION SERVICE REPRESENTATIVES

Through the interest and financial backing of our County Commissioners and the Cooperative Extension Work Service of State College, Ocracoke enjoyed and benefited from the recent visit of Miss Alma Lee Cathey, Home Agent, Hyde County, Mrs. Jewel Fessenden and Miss Rita Dubois, Food and Nutrition Specialists from North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service, Raleigh, and R.M. Williams, Farm Agent, Carteret County, who took the place of our own Farm Agent, W.H. Pruden (unexpectedly called for armed services examination).

Following the Nov. 5 P.T.A. meeting, Mr. Williams spoke to the group on Home Gardens and Poultry, showing illustrative slides. Mr. Williams also pleased the group with gifts of some of his own strawberry plants. Ocracokers will soon be eating Carteret strawberries.

Miss Cathey, Mrs. Fessenden, and Miss Dubois gave morning and afternoon talks and demonstrations to the school pupils; and held evening meetings for adults. Subjects covered: Table setting and Service, Planning Three Good Meals a Day, Cake Baking, Making Good Corn Bread Better, Breakfasts, Choosing Foods for Health, Serving Three Meals a Day.

Pamphlets and recipes were given to those present.
