1954 March of Dimes

People are asking about the March of Dimes. So far we have received no solicitation material from headquarters. When the material comes, Ooracoke will put on a whirl-wind one to three days campaign and go over the top as usual.

TEEN-AGE CLUB

With the announcement by Rev. Vickery that he would sponsor a "teen-age" club, using the Methodist Church Recreation Hall as headquarters, some of the youngsters grew to be teen-ages mighty fast. But it all seemed to work out well, since the Hall is large enough to handle two ages. First meeting was Monday night. Plans are to secure good games for the children, victrola records, etc. This is certainly a worthwhile project because it affords our young people a good place to get together for a social hour.

Mrs. Spencer still Away

Mrs. Spencer continues ill with asthma and is now at the Pittsboro Asthma Clinic, seeking medical advice which may help. Meanwhile Albert Styron, Jr. continues with her classes at school. Mr. Spencer accompanied her to Pittsboro, driving via the Hatteras Highway.

January P. T. A. Meeting

Pres. Thurston Gaskill presided. Group singing with Miss Ruby at the piano; prayer by Rev. Vickery. Secretary Virginia Esham read the minutes. Treasurer Sidney Mae Styron reported a balance of $257.30.

P.T. A. voted to purchase a new edition of the World Book Encyclopedia, which Rev. Vickery offered at a greatly reduced price. Also voted to purchase a furniture sander, as suggested by Principal Rondthaler, so that school desks and tables could be kept in good condition. Also voted to be a long extension cord and a Coloring Book Rex-o-graph Master Set for the primary room, and 12 U.S. maps for use in the 7th & 8th grades. At the close of the business session, Mr. Rondthaler showed a picture from the N.C. Health Dept.: "Fears of small Children."

Hostesses Elizabeth Howard, Katie O'Neal, Neve O'Neal, Bertha O'Neal, Edna O'Neal, Madmi O'Neal, and Marcia Peele served hot chocolate and cheese wafers.

As previously voted the February meeting will be Pot-Luck Supper for all members, with a special fun program. This comes Feb. 15th - next to St. Valentine's Day! Everyone plan to come.
