

C379.5
0190

OCRACOKE SCHOOL NEWS

---

Subscription Price: On Island 35¢. Off-Island 50¢

---

Vol 6. No. 8 April 29, 1955
Ocracoke, North Carolina

---

Editor-in-Chief: Murray Fulcher

Business Manager: Harold Wahab

Reporter: Sherry O'Neal

---

OCRACOKE HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ENJOY BANQUET

Sixty alumni graduates of Ocracoke High School were present for the annual alumni meeting and banquet on April 15th. As usual long tables in the school library were attractively decorated in class colors, purple and gold, pink and white, green and white, pink and green; candlelight and pretty corsages; and the best of banquet food -- all made it a gay occasion.

Maxine Mason, president of the Alumni Association, called for toasts, which were given by Iva Garrish, Neva O'Neal, Virginia Howard. Albert Styron, Jr., read Kipling's poem "IF"; Blanche Howard and Danny Garrish sang "This is the Hour". Officers were elected for 1955-56: Danny Garrish, president; Virginia Howard, vice-president; Jack Willis, secretary; Fannie Willis, treasurer; Blanche Howard, Iva Garrish, Daisy Gaskill, and Lillian Fulcher, committee on banquet arrangements.

Following the dinner many of those present adjourned to the recreation hall for dancing.

* * * *

HUNGRY? COME OUT FOR THE HOT-DOG LUNCH, CHURCH RECREATION HALL, THURSDAY NOON, MAY 5th, WILLING WORKERS S.S. CLASS.

OCRACOKE SCHOOL P. T. A. APRIL MEETING

About forty were present at the April PTA meeting; president T.H. Wahab, presiding. Treasurer's report indicated approximately $225 in the treasury.

Three new members were welcomed: Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Brooks and Mrs. Geraldine Tolson.

Principal Rondthaler gave a report of suggestions made by State Dept. of Education people who recently visited Ocracoke School: Homer A. Lassiter, State Supervisor of Elementary Education; Cora Paul Bomar, State School Library Advisor; and Helon Stewart, Advisor, Physical Education. He reported also on school population trends.

P.T.A. voted to purchase a North Carolina State Flag; also to purchase more library books for the first grade children and also more of fourth grade level.

After the business meeting, group singing was enjoyed. Secretary announced hostesses for May: Mrs. W. H. Halo, Wilma Williams, Dicie Wells, Louidollo Williams, Gladys Williams, and Lois Ann Wahab.

* * *

HUNGRY? BUY A TICKET FOR THE CHICKEN SALAD PLATE SUPPER, FRIDAY, MAY 13th, CHURCH RECREATION HALL, MARTHA WAHAB CIRCLE.