FRANK TEETER ELECTED PRESIDENT OCRACOKE P.T.A.

At the last 1954-55 meeting of the PTA, officers for next year were elected. These will take over the reigns of management next September when school opens. Retiring officers continue their duties through the summer months.

President: Frank Teeter. Frank has always shown much interest in the School. He has two children in school now, and another entering first grade next year.

Vice-president: Marvin Howard, no children in school, but lots of adopted boys--the Ocracoke Scout Troop, and soon the Cubs.

Secretary: Lois Ann Wahab, two children in school next year. Lois will need a baby sitter on PTA meeting night, unless the CG lets Archie off!

Treasurer: Bortha O'Neal, with Ronnie Van in seventh grade and Christine in first grade to help her keep the books! Van Henry certainly won't find time to help!

Retiring president T.H. Wahab presided; secretary Edna O'Neal read minutes and collected dues. Treasurer Eph Esham had gone off shrimping, but sent in a fine report which indicated that our P.T.A. had taken in $809.59 during the year and spent out $628.84, leaving a balance on hand of $180.75. Good going!

Biggest part of expenditure was about $300 on the shingling of the recreation hall. Other large items purchased included swings, paint for library, books, caning for chairs, kitchen equipment.

Mr. Rondthaler expressed thanks personally and for the school administration.

Doris Garrish, Ruby Garrish, Neva O'Neal, and Iva Garrish agreed to take a census of pre-school children, wanted by the County Board.

P.T.A. voted to purchase two maps from Miss Nora: $18.00.

Outstanding obligations include a small bill at Garrish & O'Neal for paint, etc., for building; $11 for a screen door for primary room; and $25 pledged to support the annual July 4th parade (Mr. Marvin, Manager Extraordinaire of the Parade will be calling for this!)

After business session, Harold Wahab and Sherry O'Neal, Juniors, presented a minstrel skit: "Coon Creek Courtship", which everyone enjoyed. Refreshments were served by hostesses Mrs. W.R. Hale, Milma Williams, Dicie Wells, Gladys Williams, Louidello Williams, and Lois Ann Wahab.

 IMPORTANT NOT ICE

School nurse Kathloon Bragg will be at the school next Wednesday, May 25, regular hours, but will be there the two Wednesdays in June following; that's her vacation time. See her next Wed. if necessary.
