P. T. A. ACTIVITIES

Although no date has been set for the annual P.T.A. Stunt Show, rehearsals indicate that everyone will be ready for it about mid-March. The ladies will present three stunts and some in-between the act duets and quartettes. The men will present four stunts, the nature of which seems to be secret at this time. But we notice they are clearing their throats for singing, learning a few old jokes, talking about bronco busting and the like, and it won't be long before it will all come out in the open.

At the February P.T.A. meeting, vice-president Marvin Howard presided, since Frank Teeter was still hospitalized at Marine Hospital in Norfolk. Mrs. Selma Spencer read the treasurer's report, which with dues collected indicated a balance of $275.13 in the treasury. Mr. Rondthaler reported that the pipe fittings are already on hand for the heat-installation job at the Recreation Hall. Labor is to be volunteers. (One big pipe joint was donated by a Winston-Salem friend who likes to fish at Ocracoke. When Mr. Rondthaler wrote and asked him to secure the necessary joint, Rob Brewer sent it free of charge. Thanks!)

NEW BHM BOOKS BROUGHT TO US

Mr. Lee Trimble, our BHM librarian, visited us last week, and brought the books listed below. Mr. Trimble says that any time a school student or any one in the community wants a special book, we can write to him for it, thru the school library.

Mrs. Thompson has already taken advantage of this offer and sent for a book. Let Mrs. Rondthaler know if there are some that you want.

- DAVY CROCKETT - PIRATE QUEST -
- THE HIDDEN STAIRCASE - LOOK OF THE EAGLE - COME THE NEW HUNTER - NOT THE GLORY - THE FARTHER SHORE - BOON ISLE - STEPHEN DECATUR - MT. EVEREST - ASTRA - PENNY'S ACRES - COLUMBUS - DEAD STORAGE - HIGHWAY OF THE SUN - A GERMAN OFFICER - A ROOM AT THE HOTEL AMBRE - SHAKESPEARE WITHOUT TEARS.

Most of these are for students rather than adults, but as stated above adults can put in a request for books.

Rudy: "Why are hurricanes named after girls?"

Betsy: "Did you ever hear of a himicane?"

Ann: "How do you get down from a horse?"

Joe Ben: "You don't. You get down from a duck."
