First P.T.A. Meeting

Murray Spencer presided over the first P.T.A. meeting, held Sept. 17. Vice-president this year is Elmo Fulcher; treasurer, Eph Esham; secretary, Geraldine Tolson. (It looks like the MEN are in the majority when it comes to officers which means there will probably be lots of Pot-Luck Suppers this year!)

Retiring treasurer, Bertha O'Neal, reported balance on hand end of May $135.89. Income during the summer $415.47 (this included dues $36.25, door receipts two dances $71.86, sale of souvenir Ocracoke pamphlet $171.47), and expenditures of $166.79 (this included purchase of pamphlets $133.30, and supplies $11.19, and $22.30 repair movie picture projector), leaving a balance to start our 1956-57 year of $248.68.

P.T.A. voted to pay part of the typewriter repair bill, and to buy a venetian blind for the primary room. Also voted to sponsor the annual Carnival in late October.

Hostesses served cold drinks and cookies; hostesses were Marion Austin, Dicie Wolls, Doris Ballance Louiedello Williams, Gladys Williams and Wilma Williams.
