OUR VILENTINE'S PARTY IND DANCE Fob. 14

A goy, successful and hoppy occasion, hanong those present were George and Martha Wash-ington (the Rondthalers); Mr.and Mrs. Ed Thurs. Feb. 22: "SONCTAING OF V LINE" Teach (mlias Blackbeard) (Mr. and Mrs. Wahab Sot. Feb. 22: "SONCTAING OF V LINE" - Rock Madson Howard) and Alice in Wonderland (Lorraine Howard; á Matador (bull fighter) Joe Ben Gerrish and his charming Spanish senorite, C-rolyn Garrish, and many others. Henry and Sybil Wilder as the "bar ten lers"ware appropriately costumed (especially Henry's Tuls.Mar.3: "FAR HORIZONS" Color Western mustache and arm banks (thich Syoil had made for him!). Virginia Howard was a Japanese girl; Iva Garrish, a Chinese girl.Sct. Mer.S: "THE IRON PLITICOLT" Bob Hope Stella and Alla Van wore the famous lady pirates, Anne Bonney and Mary Read; Alice Belle, Nova, Dora Jano, Maxime were colonial dames from Williamsburg, Lary Louise Spencer was Cinderella; Brenda Ballance was a RedCross Nurse; June Yvette, a pretty

Maid or Lady in Gray; Margaret Spencer was Queen of Hearts, along with Botsy O'Neal, another Jueen. Ignatious was the Knave of Hearts,

The "BAR 8 Hillbilly Roundup was tops and much appreciated by its aulience. In it Calvin O'Neal was Gronny O.Ryan, announcer; Thure are about 20 ponies in the Jones Danny Garrish as Lonesome Dan and Jim Wynn herd. as Slim Gim opened up the program with a rousing piano and guitar rendition of the Washington and Lee Swing. Lucila Garrish as Lucy Poorl and Iva O'Neal as Sister Ivy Ruly Vetter, Photo Chief for Office of Carter delighted the audience with their renditions of "Red Wing", "Ch, you Blautiful ington, D. C., and Miss Todd Fasher, Magazine Doll" and "Bill Bailey". Margaret Garrish as Little Peggy Sue and Merian Belle Hoggar Migh School Cirls who participated in the as "Pocahontas Smith" tears to the eyes of Red Cross course of home nursing, and of many with "Cold, Cold Heeart". Singing with their instructors, Alice Balle Williams, them was Mickey O' Neah as "Sally Goodin", Flizabeth G. Howard, and Mabel Gaskill. They to perfection. Ending with their theme promised to come again sometime.

Prizes for costumes were awarled to Joe Ben and Carolyn, Micky O'Nael, Henry Wilder, Margaret Spencer, Betsy O'Neal, Ignatious Styron, ' Lorraine Howard and Virginia Howard.

Good sandwiches, made by good nothers, and candy and cold drinks for sale brought in about $23 and the door receipts were about $21. Final profit for the Juniors on the Dince was $39.15.

In the January issue, we meant to tell you that Mike Riddick has given the School copies of his excellent colored slides of Ocracoke. Th. nks, Mike.

THE ISL ND THE TRE "Ot" A ssie Myr.

Tues.Fcb.18 "PARDNERS"- D.Martin J.L.wis Thurs.Feb.20 "HIGH SOCIETY" - Bing Corsby Tuos.Fob.25: "STR No TR AT MY DOOR" McD nold Carey Thurs.F.b. 27: "THE RAILWAKER" Burt Luncaster Sot.M.r.l: "FOR "HOM THE BELL TOLLS" Tours. Mar. 6: "B BY DOLL" -- Romantic Comedy Tues, Mor. 11: "THE BIG L MD" Alen Loud

SAM JCNES, SR. GIVES FONIES TO SCOUTS

Coptallarvin Howard, Scoutmaster, received word recently from Sam Jones that he is giving all of his Ocracoke ponies, saddles, blonkets, lariats, etc., etc. to the local Buy Scout Troop, Contract calls for the same arrangement under which the Kappel Ponies were given, namely juristiction by Trusteeship in the East Carolina Council.

RED CROSS REPRESENTATIVES HERE

We enjoyed a visit, and picture taking, by Fublic Information of the Red Cross, Wash-Chief, who took a lot of pictures of our Danny did his reading of a "Dear John"Letter alko interviewed Nurse Kathleen Bragg and took pictures of her and of several of song, "Good Night You-All," the Bar 8 group the now grown boys and girls that were her "bobies". And they took pictures of the Community in general. With them for a day or so was Mrs. Verne Wilkinson, Nursing Field Representative, from Raleigh, We hope sometime to see some of the pictures published and to read the story about them.

> WILCOME BICK HOME Mourice, Maude Ellen, and Judy. We are glad that you are settling down here at Coracoke, and best of luck to you in your buciness venture, WELCOME HOME Dix an' Beatrice (B.B.) Stay with us; don't go running off to the ruinland. We need all Corncokurs hare at home, Errrrrrrrr; coldest in over 10 years! Do m to 20 once and crn t seem to get above 35 or 40. Come planse, Soring and Summer!

(....)