Cherry-Powers Nuptials Thursday Afternoon

Miss Clea Powers and Mr. Paul Cherry were quietly married last Thursday afternoon at five o'clock at the Methodist Parsonage with Rev. W. A. Kale officiating.

The bride wore a costume of aquamarine blue with black accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of tulle roses and valley lilies.

The ceremony was witnessed by Miss Pearl Lipe and Mr. Donald Harris, friends of the young couple.

Mrs. Cherry is the daughter of Mr. J. E. Powers and the late Mrs. Powers, and holds a position with Mooresville Telephone Company.

Mr. Cherry is the son of Mrs. Grace Cherry and the late Mr. Adrian Cherry. He is owner and manager of the Cherry Dry Cleaning Company.

After a short wedding trip to Florida Mr. and Mrs. Cherry will be at home to their friends in the John Hudson house, on Easter Heights, recently purchased by Mr. Cherry.

Thompsons Entertain Ace of Clubs

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Thompson entertained the Aces of Clubs last Friday night at dinner and bridge at their home on South Broad Street. The table was laid with a handsome Italian cut-work banquet cloth, a centerpiece of blue and silver and blue lighted tapers in crystal candle holders. Holly and poinsettias were used effectively throughout the home. Following a three-course dinner the guests enjoyed several progressions of bridge with Mrs. Neel Stewart winning high score prize for ladies, and Mr. W. C. Johnston Jr. high score prize for men. Mr. Carroll Beatty won bingo prize.

Those playing were: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kennette, Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnston Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Neel Stewart, the host and hostess.

Lyon-Harrill Vows Are Solemnized

The wedding of Miss Sara Elizabeth Harrill, daughter of Mrs. James A. Harrill and the late James A. Harrill, and Mr. William Adair Lyon, son of Dr. and Mrs. Scott Cary Lyon, of Davidson, was solemnized Saturday morning at eleven o'clock at the home of the bride's mother with Rev. C. H. Myers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Eugene Johnston played and Mrs. R. Dewey Farrell, of Greensboro, sang.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. The bride wore a three-piece wool suit of DuBonnet, with a collar of Canadian lynx. Her off-the-face hat with short veil was slate blue as were her other accessories. A shoulder corsage of Narca orchids completed the costume.

After the ceremony Mrs. Harrill entertained the out-of-town guests and members of the families at a buffet luncheon. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lyon will make their home in Concord.

Mrs. Lyon attended Meredith College and Greensboro College at Greensboro, where she was graduated. She was vice president of the students association, secretary of her class and chief marshal.

Mr. Lyon was a graduate from Battleground Academy in Franklin, Tenn. and from Davidson College. He was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity and of the Scabbard and Blade, military honor fraternity. He is now connected with the Cannon Mills at Kannapolis.

Saturday Night in Japan

"COME on in, the water's fine." Bathing in Japan is on a different plane from ours as these two American gentlemen can tell you. Tubs are perpendicular there, instead of horizontal, and you stand in the water up to your neck. But we shouldn't laugh at this somewhat primitive scene, according to Consumers Information, which points out that only a hundred years ago, there were only 1,500 bathtubs in the United States, all of them in Philadelphia, where they had a city water system and taxed each tub $3.00. President Fillmore installed recital and party last Friday evening at her home on South Academy Street. The living room and music room were attractively arranged with evergreens, ivy and poinsettias.

Following the recital the class sang Christmas Carols and each pupil was presented with a small picture of Mozart by Mrs. Johnston. The hostess served Christmas cakes, candy and hot chocolate to the members of the class and guests.

Twentieth Century Club Meets

Mrs. C. A. Mayhew was hostess to the Twentieth Century Club last Thursday afternoon. Christmas decorations made an effective setting for bridge tables. High score prize was won by Mrs. W. C. Johnston Jr. The hostess served a salad course, hot rolls and coffee to the following club members: Mrs. C. C. Johnston, Mrs. C. L. Furr, Mrs. L. B. Mills, Mrs. John Rankin, Mrs. W. C. Johnston Jr., and Mrs. Vernon Volls. Guests of the club were: Mrs. W. P. Johnston, and Mrs. A. B. Sloan.

For a place that has been vacated by Chinese defenders, looks like the Japs are lacking something if they can't step right in and take Nanking.

Museum Given All Records of Earhart Flight

New York, Dec. 18.—A new kind of museum—the world center for women's archives—was formally presented with its first exhibit last night, the records, charts and maps used by Amelia Earhart on her last flight.

Dr. Edward C. Elliot, president of Purdue university, presented the documents, sent to America at various stages of Miss Earhart's flight, to a dinner assemblage of women prominent in many fields of endeavor and friends of the missing aviatrice.

Manuscripts of her writings recently published in book form under the title "Last Flight" were part of the collection.

The occasion marked the opening of the headquarters of the world center, where historical data and exhibits in connection with women's contributions to culture and history will be preserved.

Mrs. Mary Ritter Beard, founder of the center and wife of Charles A. Beard, historian, said "if such provision had been made in ancient Greece the entire complexion of writing history would have been changed."

PRISONERS INCREASE

Raleigh—There were 9,317 inmates of North Carolina prisons December 1, as compared with 9,213 November 1, the penal division reported Monday. A total of 19,327 prisoners were handled last month, of whom 4,396 were white, 6,531 negroes and 203 women.

One Washington observer makes the astounding statement that "economic stability is regarded as a certain cure for Uncle Sam's ills." Funny nobody thought of that before.
