

Dr. Alvin J. McNeil

Sees Stagnation In Development Of Christian Character & Philosophy

LAKE CHARLES, La. — In his address on "Social Consciousness" at the Warren Methodist Church of this city last Sunday, Dr. Alvin J. McNeil, national director of education of the Phi Beta Sigma Greek letter organization—among other things—warned against Christian character and philosophy "stagnation in the development of piety," pointing out that "with the philosophy of life, we fall victims to demagogues of every sort, the rands are often confused... not because they have lost their way, but because they have come to think there never was a way."

A member of the faculty at Grambling College, La., McNeil addressed Gamma Iota Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity during the Sunday morning services of the church. The occasion was the observance of Sigma's Founders' Day and the George Washington Carver Day by members of the fraternity and citizens of the community.

Dr. McNeil condemned the "aimless, the pessimist... and the doomsayer, and hopefully impertinent his audience to "require healthy-minded individuals, community service and possibility-minded people to assist in bringing the world back in line with the teachings of Jesus Christ."

Also participating in the morning services were: the Rev. W. T. Handy, Sr., pastor of Warren Methodist Church; Dr. S. M. Chapman and J. D. Kirkum, a vocal quartet of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority; Dr. C. W. Ross, local president; a special student group under the direction of Claude L. Williams; Wiley B. McMillon, Sigma's regional director of Social Action; Mrs. Ella Ruth Wiley and the Warren Methodist Upper Room Choir.

Dr. Jackson, Zion Pastor, To The V. I.'s

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Dr. E. Franklin Jackson, pastor John Wesley A.M.E. Zion Church, left here Thursday for an extended trip to the Virgin Islands and South America, where he, along with a delegation of the denomination, study the religious mores of the people of those countries.

Dr. Jackson, who heads the local NAACP, and considered one of the ardent members of the militant organization is also expected to look into the civil affairs of the two countries. He also expressed a desire to visit Mexico and if possible have a talk with Castro.

This part of the trip was not determined when he left. He also expressed antinense interest in the unrest now going on in Haiti.

He is a member of the delegation, headed by Bishop R. L. Jones, who has charge of the work in the two countries.

Mistaken For Colored, Woman Refused Cafe Service; Mgr. Is Arrested For Law Violation

CHICAGO (ANP) — The manager of a West Chicago restaurant in DuPage County was arrested last week on a warrant sworn out by a woman of Spanish descent after he refused her service because he believed she was a Negro.

Dennis Slowe, white manager of the restaurant, was arrested after Mrs. Anita Mendoza, 42, of Chicago complained to DuPage County sheriff's police that she was refused service in the restaurant.

She said she entered the restaurant and ordered a cup of coffee but was told by a waitress that she could be served only in a take-out paper cup. She demanded to see the manager. When Slowe arrived he informed her that the restaurant does not serve Negroes. About 10 other customers witnessed the episode.

"I have never been mistaken for a Negro before, not even in the South where I have traveled a lot," Mrs. Mendoza said.

Mrs. Mendoza, an olive-skinned woman with dark hair, said she was born in El Paso, Texas. Her father was a native Spaniard and her mother, Mexican.

Slowe was charged with violation of the state civil rights law but released on $500 bond for appearance later in the week in West Chicago police court.

A CAKE HIGHLIGHT EASTER DINNER

A beautiful cake will be the highlights of your Easter dinner table. Of course, you will want that cake to be an artistic triumph and to be as delicious as it is pretty. But it must not claim too much time and energy. The solution, as you may already know, is to use a cake mix.

Especially appealing for your Easter cake is this chocolate chip cake frosted with fluffy pink peppermint frosting and decorated with a spray of flowers. In this feather-light, cocoa-brown cake mix, luscious chocolate chips are liberally scattered, so they stay scattered through the cake when it is baked. After the easy one-step mixing with only the addition of unbeaten eggs and water, the batter for this cake is baked in two square layer pans.

A pink peppermint frosting compliments this cake, in both color and flavor. And then, because it is Springtime and the occasion is so important, the cake is decorated with a spray of lilacs! These can be candied. Many candied flowers as well as other novel cake decorations are obtainable at many specialty food shops. Fresh flowers are also lovely for decorating a cake, however. Colorful candy Easter eggs on the cake tray are a fanciful at-decorations.
