Augustine's College and Shaw University received degrees here Monday during commencement exercises. Top photo shows Mrs. N. Ray of New York City, left, kissing her daughter, Miss Noretta Ray, who was graduated from St. Augustine's. This scene took place shortly the ceremonies. Bottom picture shows Dr. Grady D. Davis of Shaw University as he slips symbol of honorary Doctor of Divinity degree over the shoulders of Dr. Rufus Irving Boone of Wilmington as Dr. L. E. McCauley. 2nd from right, and President W. R. Strass

White Man Faces Morals Charges In Cary's Court public mention had been made of Chief W. A. Sparkman of Cary Tuesday, and Cary solicitor Robert Emmanuel, Jr., this reporter was rejuctantly told of the incidents which led to the arrest of C. B (Barnes, Jr., 32, town of Cary were quite by Mrs. Margaret Matthews, colorupset last week after a lapse of ed. of Route 1. Cary, and with ten days had passed in which no distributing obscenity involving > the Matthews property on May 18. Solicitor Emmanuel refused to divulge the specific incidents related by the children because he

Ligon High Takes Second Straight Baseball Honors

end consecutive State baseball championship last Wednesday night when it defeated Carver High School of Spindale, 8-7 at Chavis Park, "Pete" Williams is Ligon's coach.

The Ligon Little Blues spotted the Carver Eagles five runs in the first inning of the encounter and were troiling. 7-4, in the englith inning when Sam Gray, a relief pitcher, Ligon ace to make it to second base on a ball which was passed. Three others were walked by Gray.

Scoring on a walk was Wendell Smith, and Theodore Powell tallied on a wild pitch. William Crockett scored with the tying run on

The state title was wrapped up (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Charlotte To Continue "Limited" Integration operate for the third consecutive year in the Charlotte City schools

One of the four colored students who have been attending white schools here is expected to graduate this year The other three are expected to be assigned on the same basis by the school board during the next two weeks.

a limited scale is expected to also expected to ask the school board for reassignment to white or mostly white schools during a 10-day appeal period that will end

The president of the North Ca-The president of the North Carolina branch of the NAACP, Kelly Alexander, said he will announce plans towards this end

ADVERTISERS

PALE 2 Glooman's Ladies Shop Siden Finance Compan Sidenaurs, The Tailor

t Air 3 to Stores, Inc. 10 dails & Farmers Bank Freshore Fores
Cattle b rect tein Laundrom. Hamba Drug Company

L down Selk Company ore Sales & Service Te John W Winters Grow Of Cate Store

Carolina Type ariter Course Variot Barber, Shop Ciple Corper Earbsens

cod's 50-100-31 00 Store & Jill Children Ehop

Sate Unarce Company Land's Jewelers

 W. Johnson
 E. Mokes Concrets Contraleich Furniture Company Raleigh Loan Company

Sinders Notes Company Consolidate: Credit Corp Raistiff Communicion House, I: Solly's Univers Date Q

Mr. C. Mari Litchman

Raleigh Paint & Wallpaper Company Taylor Radio & TV Service Standard Cinder Block Company S M Young Hardware Modern Finance Company R. E. Quinn Furniture Company PAGE 9
Edited's of Raleigh
Carolina Power & Light Company
First-Citizens Bank & Trust Co.
Public Service Co. of N. C., Inc.
Raleigh Scarood Company
Capital Loan Company
Castleberry-Hodge Hardware Dage in

PAGE 19
Beiuxe Botel
Pepsi-Col Bottling Co.
Wasner Memorials
Bloodwor's St. Tourist Home

Caveness insurance Agency Dunn's Esso Service Ridgeway's Opticians Carolina Euilders Corp Watson's heafood Co.
Dillon Motor Finance Co.
Experterville St. Baptist Addr b Winters FAGE 13 Horton's Cash Store Noteed & Watson Town & Country Tits Company Electrical Wholesalets, Inc.

Lands Sparring Goods Store Runt General Tire Company The Rood Eviden Industrial Bank The Rood Eviden Incu
Famous Eakery
N C Products
Whis Hoves Inc
Gen Watch Shop
Rateigh Funeral Hoos
A me Braits Company
Speedy-Wash, Inc.

Declares No Federal Law Was Broken

POPLARVILLE, Miss-Punish ment of the white murderers of Mack Charles Parker Tuesday was left entirely to Mississippi courts

Mississippi authorities made if emphatically clear they would handle the lynching case in their The FBI withdrew from the case Monday. It turned the names of white men suspected of kidnaping the 23-year-old

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 18, NO. 35

PRICE 12e IN N. C.: ELSEWHERE 15e

Burglar To

Spend Life

ward Nosbit pled guilty to a charge of breaking into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Robin-

The breakage occurred on the morning of April 18. Mrs.

Robinson told police that she awoke and saw a man crouch ed in the doorway of her hed.

room. He fled, taking a quan

Local Girl

Says Reaves

Raped Her

In Prison

'Silver Dollar' Burglar Gets Life

ITTLE BLUES TRIUMPH RAPE SUSPECT CAUGHT

Court's Decree Stuns State

Judges Say Sports Ban

Court Monday moved into the sports field with its anti-segregation rulings. It struck down as unconstitutional a Louisiana law barring competition between Negro and white athletes.

The court threw out the state's 1956 interracial aports law without comment. The decision simply upheld a lower court ruling that the state law violated the federal constitu-

The decision threw a legal cloud over all state and local laws prohibiting Negroes and whites

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 8)

5 Retiring Agents Will Be Honored

ELIZABETH CITY - The North arolina Negro Extension Agents' Association's Annual Banquet in honor of retiring agents will be held at the State Teachers' College Dining Room on Thursday, May 28. at 6 p. m. Five agents will be honored on this occasion: John W. Jeffries, Jacob C. Hubbard, Mrs. Estelle T. Nixon, Moses C. Burt and John B. Small.

The program will include invocation by Mrs. Rosa Winchester. CHARLOTTE - Integration on | Many other colored students are introduction of speaker by Melvin (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Front Royal Not 'Finish'

FRONT ROYAL, Va. - 17-yearold Anne E. Rhodes will know on Friday whether she will graduate from Warren County's formerly all-white high school.

Warren County school officials are pondering the possibility of her graduation after only 108 days of school attendance. The student attended 39 days of school in Washington before she transferred to Warren County. The normai school days total 180.

The Warren County school admitted 21 Negro students after a Federal Court desegregation order in February. Since then school's entire white student bo-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Memorial Day Services Set For Saturday

Annual Memorial ceremonies will be held Seturday afternoon between 4 and 5 p. m. at the National Cemetery in Raleigh. Negro scout troops and members of veterans' organizations will participate in the program. Twelve veterans of World Wars I and II and the Spanish-American War died during the last 12

(CONTINUED ON FAGE %

-Olabisi Ayala, 29, of Nigeria who is studying at Columbia University in New York, breaks through security forces (left photo) at the Palais Des Nations. Geneva, Switzerland recently in an effort to hand U S. Secretary of State Christian Herter (entering car) a petition demanding freedom from white oppression in Africa. He is held by guards at right. He was later released. (UPI PHOTO).

Resident Of

Greensboro

GREENSBORO - A coroner's jury ruled Thursday afternoon that the fatal shooting of a colored

Herbert Hughes, Jr., 33, wa tilled during a scuffle with Depu

Officers said Mrs. Nellie Beile

Johnson complained that Hughes was molesting her daughter and requested help in getting Hughes out of the house. McAdon and McAdon ordered Hughes to get out of hed and leave the house. The officers said

Huches pulled the sheets up high and reached under the sheet. McAdoo look his 38

CONTINUED ON DA

another deputy found Hughes in bed in one of the rooms.

justifiable homicide.

Gilbert Reaves, 16. of S. Bloodworth Street, was bound over to the Wake County Superior Court Thursday without bond on a charge of rape. He is charged with criminal.

ly assaulting Miss Anna Crowder, 17, of Washington Terrace last Wednesday night in an alley on the side of the Greyhound Bus Company garage, which recently ceased operations. Detective Sgt. W. F. Crocker who made the arrest, related in court that Reaves admitted meeting the young woman at Burnett's (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Attacker Hunted At Greenville

GREENVILLE, N. C. - A voman told officers a Negro man attempted to assault her early Monday while she slept in her home in a Greenville residential

Mrs. Roland Mare said she was aione at the time of the attack She said noise in the neighborhood apparently frightened the man a-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

WEST POINT GRADS - Raymond C. Baugh, left, 25, and Wilourne A. Kelly, 23, will be traduated from the West Point Military Academy on June 3 and be commissioned as second lieutenants in the U S. Army. Baugh, a native of Philadelphia, was appointed to the Academy by Rep Earl Chudoff (D.Pa.), and Kelly, a University of Michigan graduate, was named by Rep. George O'Brien (D-Mich).

Violence Flares At Greenshoro-Youth Savagely Beaten, Deputy Kills Intruder Shots Claim

Knives And Bats Used On Victim

GREENSBORO -- Charles Palmer of Route 2, Summerfield, was stabbed several times and hit over the head with a baseball bat Priday night of last week, according to police report

The 19-year-old Negra youth was reported to have been with four others in a car around 11 p. m. when he was spotted at a drive-in restaurant by the accused assailants. Wilbur Bailey. 21, of Greensboro Rudolph Chavis, 20, of Route 2 Brown Summit, and Alvis Fewell 21. of Route 2 were arrested on charges in connection with the attack. The arrested assailants pursued the Paimer Car after Palmer and his pals left the restaurant. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News Brief

BAPTISTS REPORT OVER $61,000 WILMINGTON - The Rev. Dr Rufus Irving Boone, prominent State Baptist Convention official reported to The CAROLINIAN Tuesday that the initial target date in connection with a quarterbillion dollar campaign, currently sponsored by N. C. Baptists, noted reports of a grand total of $61,099-30. These receipts have the following breakdowns:

Shaw University, $44,845.60; State Missions, $15,092.15; Women's Missions, $1,000; and the Unified Program, $161.75. Montes acknowledged on the May 5 report date amounted to $19,552.56, with $15,016.18 of

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Baptists Set "Summit Meet" On Integration Of Churches

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Members! The original motion would have tion voted Friday to consider a favoring a conference between "summit meeting" between leaders of white and Negro branches of the baptist faith to discuss "mutual problems of the day."

The action came on the final day of the 102nd annual meeting of the convention, but only after 45 minutes of unusually heated debate which resulted in moderation of the original resolutions sent to the floor by the resolutions committee.

of the Southern Baptist Conven- put the convention on record as leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention, and leaders of two major Negro Baptist organizations.

This proposal met with strong man by a Guilford County Depuoppositon from messengers from ty Sheriff Wednesday night was a number of churches in the deep South, and the resolution was amended to provide only that "the Executive Committee consider a ty Frank McAdoo in a bedroom meeting," before it was carried by of a woman's home an overwhelming voice vote.

Ex-UNC Students Plan To Re-Enroll In September

graduates of the University of in a dormitory with white students out of school because of scholastic

Leroy Frasier, Lewis Brandon and Ralph Frasier may re-enter the university after building up their grades by correspondence courses. They had to leave UNC last summer because their grades fell below

The first three Negro under- | The three students were roomed

North Carolina at Chapel Hill will at the center of the campus. They not graduate this year as was reported that their relations with expected. The youngsters dropped fellow white students were good. Leroy Prasier, 21, now enrolled at North Carolina College in Durnam, hopes to re-apply for enrollment this fall. His brother Ralph, 20, entered the army and is now stationed at Ft. Jackson, S. C. Leroy blamed poor background and lack of application

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Racial Incidents Denied By Principal At Norfolk

of an integrated high school has it was reopened on a racially-mixdenied a legislative candidate's charges that racial incidents at the school are beign covered up. Charles W. Perdue, principal of Norview High School said metdents at the school have been limited to "name calling."

Perdue was replying to charges by Hal J. Bonney, a Norview history teacher and candidate for the Virginia House of Delegates, that unpublicized racial incidents NORFOLK, Va .- The principal had occurred in the school since ed basis last February.

"I can't speak for other schools." Perdue fold the Norfolk Education Assn. Monday, "but I can speak for Norview. The accusations that Mr. Bonney made are not true." Perdue spoke at a meeting high the association, composed o white public school teachers, went (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)