

GANG WAR VICTIM'S RITES HELD

...in an effort to spark shame and action out of New Yorkers.
The Rev. Myers, who has his own parish at St. Augustine's chapel in a slum area lashed out at police, social workers, clergy and the entire citizenry as to the blame of Theresa's slaying.
Addressing the congregation, which filled one-third of the 1,500 seats in Trinity church, Rev. Myers said:
"If you cared about her, then let this be your memorial to her. Let there be no more sudden death in the streets of the lower east side. Let no innocent people fall to these streets. Banish all thoughts of retaliation. Have heart, real heart like our Lord Jesus Christ, who had courage."
Three years ago, he arranged a truce between the Sportsmen and the Forsyth street gang. The truce fell apart and blazed into open warfare last Sunday. The girl was reported the friend of the president of the Sportsman.
A LANDMARK
Trinity church is considered one of New York's best known landmarks and just a block away is the New York Stock Exchange. Keith Funston, exchange president, is a vestryman at the church.
The two gangs are racially mixed, although the Forsyth gang is largely Puerto Rican. The trouble apparently started four days before the fatal shooting when a fist-fight developed between a member of each gang.

CHUCK BERRY TO FORFEIT MISS. BOND?

The Officers Club at the Meridian Municipal Airport after he was accused of asking the 20-year-old white girl for a date and said he hid for 45 minutes in empty military barracks at the airport until police arrived.
Berry said the white teenagers begged him to play overtime at the dance.
"Those young cats were really having a ball," he said. "I think the manager of the place stopped the overtime idea. Somebody pulled the plug from the guitar amplifier."
"Then these young folks came around for autographs," he said.
He said some of the teenagers then began "acting up" and insisting that he sing some more of his songs such as "Maybeline" and "Memphis, Tennessee."
"Some boy came across the room and called me a smart nigger. He later said something about dating his sister whose autograph I had signed," Berry said.
"She was the daughter of a railroad official or something. She was as pretty as you ever saw. She looked a lot younger than 20 like they say, more like 16," he said.
Berry said the band, a group from Meridian which played for the dance, "got out in a hurry."
He said he was left alone with the "kids acting up" and decided to get outside. He dashed into the empty barracks, he said, and hid for 45 minutes.

GROOM, 96, WEDS BRIDE, 60, IN RALEIGH

Cars filled the parking space by the church and faces of spectators from outside the building poked into the windows for a glimpse of the nuptials inside. The couple arrived at 1:00 p.m. and the minister entered into the ceremony immediately.
Mr. Frierson is the father of a 50-year-old son by his first wife. Mrs. Frierson is the mother of a 35-year-old daughter, now married. The former wives of Mr. Frierson and the former husband of Mrs. Frierson are all dead.
No plans for a honeymoon were revealed, but the couple hope to reside at 511 Smithfield Street.

FAMILY OF THREE NOW OUT OF JAIL

The Communist Party attempted to make a cause celebre of the case. A number of hearings into the case were large, noisy and demonstrative.
Members of the Women's Committee For Equal Justice in New York staged successive pilgrimages to Georgia Governors to seek clemency for the Ingrams, even though the original death sentences had been commuted to life imprisonment.
The release of the Ingrams was ordered by the State Pardon and Parole Board Wednesday.
Dr. C. R. Yates, a wealthy Atlanta druggist, who handled the Ingrams' defense, has guaranteed employment for Mrs. Ingram and her two sons.

Church Bonus Money Rules

All purchase slips or receipts presented to your church must come from stores advertising in the CAROLINIAN.
Each week carries a date in the Bonus Money period. Purchases eligible must come from the store during the week the "ad" appears.
No purchase slips representing a business should be submitted. All receipts must come from individual purchases.
All churches in Raleigh and Wake County are eligible.
All purchase slips must bear the names of the stores from which the purchase was made.
Purchase slips should be submitted to the name of the church and should be in the office of the CAROLINIAN the Monday following close of Bonus period.
In order that smaller churches may have an equal opportunity to share in the Bonus Money the following regulation is expedient: No church of over 200 members will be awarded 1st Bonus Money consecutively. It should be a church of 200 or more members, receive 1st Bonus Money after the first period it would have to wait until the third Bonus period to be presented for award again, except where a church has 200 or less members, then it could win top Bonus awards consecutively. However, this does not mean that second and third awards cannot be sought consecutively. Consequently every church should have the opportunity to secure an award every year.
No purchase of over $50 from any one merchant during a week can be counted.
There is a ceiling of $25 per person a week for grocery purchases.
In the event of the same amount of purchases by more than one entry, the award will be divided.
Purchase slips should be shown on each check and total placed on the outside of the envelope carrying the period's entry along with name and address.
Bonus money awards will be announced to the store following the closing of each period.
All checks remain the property of the CAROLINIAN.
All calls for the names of the stores which earned are an obligation of the CAROLINIAN, and no responsibility is accepted by this newspaper beyond that point.
No receipts from banks will be considered as payment of mortgage.

girl told officers the boys had picked her up on the pretense of taking her to a babysitting job but drove instead to a secluded area about six miles from here. She said both of the youths assaulted her and then returned her to a street near her home.
The girl's mother notified police who arrested the two youths Friday. The girl identified them in a police line-up.
A medical examination showed the girl had had sexual relations, officers said.

DEAN BRANDIS IRKED OVER BOARD'S ACTION

Action was first rejected that he would appeal to the courts if it were rejected again.
But instead, at Monday night's meeting of the board, Pearson congratulated the board for "taking the step" of planning integration for next year.

State College Answers

QUESTION: What are the advantages of polled doris sheep over other breeds?
ANSWER: The new strain of polled doris has received a lot of attention lately. Actually, the fact that they are polled, while their ancestors had horns, is what makes them more useful and easy to handle. Horns make grazing more difficult, sometimes growing into the head, and frequently get caught in rough wire fences and farm equipment. And polled animals require less head-bunk space and are not subject to infestation by the horn
