

Morgan's Eddie Hurt Steps Down As Grid Mentor

Eagles Down Falcons, 28-0; Trojans Whip Shaw, 32-0

St. Aug. Proves Second CIAA Win For NC College

North Carolina College scored a 28-0 CIAA victory over St. Augustine's College at Chavis Park here Saturday. The Falcons, on the short end of the series, 0-12 with the Eagles held NCC to two points in the first half.

Paul Winslow, Elizabeth City senior halfback, scored two TD's and rushed for 88 yards in 10 carries.

Winslow's first TD came in a 26 yard slice over left tackle. Walt Browning's conversion try was wide.

A hard charging NCC forward wall shook up Falcon quarterback Herb Bullows, who fumbled. An alert Roscoe Barfield, Eagle halfback from Snow Hill, carried to the six. After a three yard advance by Barfield, Winslow burst thru to emuddle for his second TD.

The conversion try didn't materialize. NCC quarterback Reginald Pryor received a bad snap from center while he held for Browning, who didn't get a chance

Charlie Cox, fresh ex-GI end from Kinston, dashed 30 yards on one of Burrows' pass tries and scored for NCC's third TD.

NCC's final tally was engineered by junior quarterback Nathan Cook. On a handoff from Cook, fresh halfback Bishop Harris of Fayetteville, faked the Falcons' defensive left side and shot off the Falcons' right guard on a 7 yard burst that landed him in the end zone with the TD.

NCC completed 4 of 10 passes as compared to the Falcons' 2 of 4 aerial tries.

Two of the Falcons' passes were intercepted. NCC had none lost this way.

Surprisingly, the Falcons outdistanced the Eagles by kicking 5 for an average of 35 yards in contrast to NCC's 4 boos for 29 yard average.

NCC plays Virginia State in Durham on October 17. Kickoff time is 1:30 p. m. at O'Kelly Field. The Eagles' homecoming will be October 31 with Shaw University.

LIGON WINS HOMECOMING TILT — James Stewart (21) star right halfback at the J. W. Ligon High School, is seen running for a 35-yard gain for the Little Blues during their homecoming game against Greenville last Friday night here. Roy Lee Crowder (33) is shown blocking for Stewart. This action took place during the 3rd quarter. Ligon won the game by a score of 32-6.

Ligon's Little Blues Win Homecoming Tilt Over Eppes Of Greenville, 32-8

The Little Blues of the J. W. Ligon High School swamped the Eppes High School football team, 32-8, here Friday night in their 1959 homecoming encounter.

Registering in the scoring column for Ligon were seven Little Blues as they racked up scores in every quarter.

Starting off the slaughter was William Crockett, who scored minutes after the game began, after scampering 25 yards for a touchdown. The Blues had marched 65 yards for this touchdown.

Near the end of the second quarter, James Stewart clinched a 44-yard march with a 29-yard dash to put Ligon ahead at intermission, 12-0.

A bad pass from Eppes' center on their own five-yard-line, provided Ligon with their third quarter score. Bobby Gardner, a tackle, pounced on the ball in the end zone and scored.

The Little Blues wound up their scoring parade in the fourth period with two touchdowns. Billy Mack ran five yards to rap off a 42-yard touchdown march for the first one. This was set up on a pass interception.

The final touchdown also followed a pass interception. Jimmy Horton intercepting on the Eppes 30 and going to their four before being stopped. William Robertson went over from there. William Monroe added the extra point, the only one of the contest.

Eppes' lone touchdown came in the final quarter and climaxed a 62-yard march. Joe Tyson passed 11 yards to Bobby Gatland for the score. Tyson also passed to Gatland for the extra point.

While the Ligon offensive attack was divided among a half dozen players, Louis Johnson, William Crockett and James Stewart were cited for outstanding play.

Billy Mims, Bobby Gardner, Elbert Hawkins and Louis Johnson were the defensive leaders for Ligon.

Freddy Watson and Larry Hardy were the offensive standouts for Eppes. The visitors were paced on defense by Woody Wilson.

In The CIAA: Union's Williams Leads Pass Receivers; Hawks Tops In Team Offense, Defense

DURHAM—(CIAA NEWS SERVICE) — Virginia Union's Warren W. Williams, with five receptions in Union's 20-0 win over Howard last week, moved ahead of his nearest competition among the CIAA's leading pass receivers. Williams, a 6-5, 240 pounder from Washington, D. C., snagged 10 passes for a total of 109 yards.

Earl Bowen, Morgan State's 210 pound fullback, gained 120 yards against North Carolina College to take over first place in the league's rushing department. Last week's leaders, Nelson Guthrie of Winston-Salem, Willie Holland of Hampton, and Billy Gray of Maryland State, dropped to fifth, ninth and second in the rushing division, respectively.

Maryland State's Hawks piled up 373 yards, 258 rushing, in their 39-0 conquest over Bluefield State to lead the CIAA in team total offense. Vernon (Skip) McCain's Hawks piled up this total on 47 plays. The 298 yards garnered on the ground was good enough to lead the loop's clubs in rushing also.

Defensively, Maryland State also topped the league. The Hawks only yielded 38 yards for an average of 11.90 per game to hold down second place.

Winston-Salem's Rams are runner-up to the Hawks in total offense and in rushing offense. The Rams battered their way for 729 yards on total offense for an average of 364.5 yards per tilt. In rushing, Tom Conrad's club gained 620 yards on the ground for an average of 310 yards per contest.

A&T's Aztecs, the defending champs, lead the league in the team passing offense with 7 of 12 completions for a 58.3 percentage and a total of 125 yards. J. C. Smith follows with a 9 of 21 completion mark for a percentage of 42.9. The Golden Bulls have piled up a total of 142 yards on aerials, connecting twice on TD strikes.

Herbert Burrows of St. Augustine's and Willie Draper of St. Paul's moved into first place in the CIAA passing department as they connected on 4 of 4 tosses in last week's CIAA action. Burrows' four connections netted 85 yards, one good for a touchdown tally. Draper's four aerials covered a total of 21 yards. A & T's Paul Swann was in the runner-up spot with a .500 per cent accuracy.

Napoleon Barbosa, Virginia Union's triple-threat quarterback, took over the league lead in total offense in the second week of play. Barbosa, with 26 yards rushing and 167 yards passing, in 61 plays has a total of 247 yds in 4 tilts. NCC's Roscoe Barfield, last week's leader, dropped to second place with 237 yards on total offense. Barfield's total was picked up in 47 plays in 3 games.

NCC Eagles Scheduling 23 Cage Tilts

DURHAM—North Carolina College's basketball team will play twenty-three games this year.

Floyd Brown's Eagles' stage their annual intra-squad game in the home gymnasium on November 21.

The Eagles open CIAA play on December 1 at Hampton. The remainder of the slate follows:

December 2, Elizabeth City, Elizabeth City; Dec. 5, Virginia State, Durham; Dec. 8, S. C. State, Orangeburg, S. C.; Dec. 12, Morgan State, Durham; Dec. 15, W. Va. State, Durham; Dec. 18, J. C. Smith at Charlotte; Jan. 1-2, Winston-Salem Holiday Tournament; Jan. 5, Elizabeth City, Durham; Jan. 9, Winston-Salem, Winston-Salem; Jan. 12, Fayetteville State, Fayetteville; Jan. 15, Shaw University, Raleigh; Jan. 16, Virginia Union, Durham; Jan. 20, S. C. State, Durham; Jan. 23, A&T College, Greensboro; Jan. 30, Winston-Salem, Durham; Feb. 2, Fayetteville State, Durham; Feb. 5, Virginia Union, Richmond, Va.; Feb. 6, Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md.; Feb. 8, Virginia State, Petersburg, Va.; Feb. 11, Hampton Institute, Durham; Feb. 13, A&T College, Durham; Feb. 16, J. C. Smith University, Durham; Feb. 20, Shaw University, Durham.

Rain-Soaked Crowd Sees Va. State Swamp Shaw U.

PETERSBURY, Va. — Virginia State College "Trojans" swamped Shaw "Bears" 32-0 on a wet field, before a rain drenched crowd at Rogers Stadium, Petersburg, Virginia Saturday.

The first "Trojan" tally came within minutes after the kickoff. DeWayne Jeter passed to Harry Morgan on the 23 yard line and fullback Eugene Carmichael carried to the 19 yard. On the next play, DeWayne Jeter passed to Harry Morgan who scored the first six pointer of the game. The extra point conversion was made by George Franklin.

After the kick-off, Shaw tried a series of pass plays and found one to be intercepted by Sidney Swann on the 40 yard line who returned it to Shaw's 21 yard line. On the next play Swann carried 19 yards for the second touchdown of the game. George Franklin split the uprights for the second conversion.

In the waning moments of the first quarter, State recovered a "Bear" fumble and marched to the 15 yard line. Jeter's pass to Aaron Smith who ran the 15 yards for the third tally. Franklin's conversion was no good. Shaw tried to rally but was unable to penetrate "Trojan" territory beyond the 25 yard line.

In the second half of the game Shaw's pass offensive was effective when the "Bears" completed seven out of ten passes. They also penetrated deep into Virginia State territory down to the 13 yard line.

The "Trojan's" final tally came in waning moments of the quarter when DeWayne Jeter, after a series of running plays by George Franklin and Eugene Carmichael, plucked from the one yard line.

The final conversion was blocked.

Paul Quinn Riddles Tougaloo Squad, 46-6

WACO, Tex. (AP)—The brilliant passing arms of freshmen quarterback Weldon Baker and junior quarterback Joe Herman Earl, and the running of 150-lb halfback Richard Pleasant, made Tougaloo college no competition for the Paul Quinn Tigers at Jackson stadium in their first home game recently.

Baker, passing for two touchdowns to right end Donald Childs, and another to left end Willie Winkfield, added to his performance by scoring 15 and 22 yard runs.

Richard Pleasants added to the scoring on runs of 43 and 16 yards runs.

It Pays To ADVERTISE

J.W. DANT

100 PROOF

BOTTLED-IN-BOND

KENTUCKY
STRAIGHT
BOURBON WHISKEY

$4.40
4/5 QT.

$2.80
PINT

THE DANT DISTILLERY COMPANY, DANT, KENTUCKY

Will Remain As Director Of Athletics

BALTIMORE, Md.—The 1959 Morgan State College Bears don't know it yet—but they're making history.

They'll be the last Morgan eleven to be piloted by the little "Miracle Man of Coaching," Edward Paulette (Eddie) Hurt.

Uncle Eddie, after a 38-year Morgan career as head coach of football, is stepping down.

Morgan President Martin D. Jenkins announced last week "with regret" that this will be the last season in which Hurt will coach football.

The Morgan president said: "At his request, Edward P. Hurt is relinquishing his duties as head coach of football effective with the close of the 1959 season. He will continue to serve as athletic director, professor of physical education and coach of track and field."

No successor has been named to follow Hurt as head coach. President Jenkins said.

A TREMENDOUS PERSON

President Jenkins coupled his announcement with warm praise for the 59-year-old coach. He said, "I have the warmest admiration and respect for Coach Hurt. He's a tremendous person who has given brilliant and dedicated service to the college over the years. While we regret to lose his services as coach of football, we're happy to conserve him. He's done a fine job."

FOOTBALL

JOHNSON C. SMITH UNIVERSITY

VS

DELAWARE STATE COLLEGE

Sanders-McCrorey Stadium
(Campus Stadium) — Charlotte, N. C.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 17

2:00 P. M.
Admission: Adults $1.50 - Students $1.00

Seagram's

7 Crown

HAPPY MOMENT FOR DODGER STARS — Heroes for the Los Angeles Dodgers in their 4-3 win over the Chicago White Sox during the World Series are Charlie Neal, left, and Chuck Essagian. Neal hit 2 home runs, driving in four runs, while Essagian blasted one one as a pinch-hitter in the 7th inning for Johnny Podres. The Dodgers went on to defeat the White Sox for the series crown last Thursday. (UPI TELEPHOTO).