Mother Of Carolinian Employee Succumbs At Durham Residence

Barnes, 77, died after an extended iliness at her home in Durham on Tuesday at 5:25 p.m. She was the mother of Alexander Barnes. member of the advertising and promotional staff of THE CARO-LINIAN and driector of public relations for the AME Zion Church.

The daughter of the late Alex and Ellen King of Bladen County, she spent most of her early years at Selma. She then moved to Farmville, and to Durham in 1924. On November 1, 1902, she married E. D. tractor of North Carolina. Virginia, and the District of Columbia. To the union were born ten children, two of whom died in infancy.

Mrs. Barnes was a staunch member of the AME Zion Church since her youth. She joined the Willy's Creek AME Zion Church while in Fayetteville and was a Zion Church at the time of her

At her bedside at death were her husband, six of her surviving children, and two neices: Mrs. children; and one greatgrandson and Mrs. F. Ganey of Fayetteville.

Funeral rites will be conducted at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday by the Reverends R. L. Speaks and George Tharrington. Burial will take place in the Beechwood Cemetery. Survivors are her children: Al exander, of Durham and Washmember of the St. Mark's AME ington. D. C.; Mrs. Leomie Haw Washington, D. C.: Mrs. Windley Elmore of Greensboro; six grand-

Raleigh PTA Council Meets; Discusses Problems Of Teens'

Developing the child to meet the ! challenges of a rapidly changing world were emphasized at the Raleigh Parent Teachers Association Council during their regular meet- group that the responsibilities for ing held in the Ligon High School student lounge last Tuesday.

All children have problems Whether or not they are able to She suggested that children be set desirable solutions to their major conclusions developed from a panel discussion. The business

Following the business session, J. C. Washington, president of the host association presented Mrs. T. T. Daley, moderator of the panel, who, in turn introduced the panelist. Mrs. Sarah Brower, probation counselor. Domestic Relations Court, and Mrs. Thelma An-

BY J. C. GALBREATH

Beautician Club News

gressive Beauticians Club presented a Beauty Extravaganza at Rox-horo Elementary School. The program consisted of hair styling exhibits and fashions showing progress that has been made in this

The club held its regular monthly meeting on November 3rd at the home of Mrs. Christine Dickens.

Mes, Lucy Lee, president of the Progressives, presided. After the business session, the members present were served a delicious repast

Martha Pettiford, Mrs. Matina Dickens, and Mrs. Jeraldine Beard.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Martha Dickens.

"Book Week" Observed

Miss Forrest A. Bolton and her second grade class entertained the primary teachers and pupils Tuesday morning with a seecial program in observance of Children's

The class, with the help of the music teacher, Miss J. P. Dillard.

conducted the devotional, after

DISCUSSIONS

will meet Menday night, November 16, at 8 c'cleck in the school

ra eteria and discuss measures which parents and teachers might

The parents will be divided into several groups with a cifically they will be concerned with the slow learner and the retarded student and will consider some of the implications revealed by test results as reported by Mrs. Thelma Daley, girls' counselor and director of testing at Ligon, at the Oc-

Special attention will be given to progress made in the PTA Drive which has a goal of 1000 members.

P. U. Watson is chairman of the Drive and Ligon Grade Mothers

Mrs. E. B. Cofield will be in charge of the program and PTA

tober meeting.

are assisting.

leader for each group. Spe-chi ve better results in their cipal.

Book Week.

studies.

arca from 1930 to 1960.

ROXBORO NEWS

ROXBORO -Recently the Pro- She defined book week as a week of the Sojourner Truth YWCA.

Mrs. Brower, in a discussion of teenage problems, reminded the community given love, affection and respect problems, may to a large extent. in order that they may be better determine the kind of adult they able to adjust to the complexities will become. This was among the of a contemporary society. She suggested that children may effectively solve most of their problems if session was under the direction of there is love, respect. confidence he president, Mrs. Sadie Griffith. and understanding from the adults to whom youth looks for satisfy-

Mrs. Anders, in a discussion of life, stressed the importance of a functional recreational program in which Miss Bolton talked on "Wh

We Celebrate Children's Book

Week," and "The Care of Books."

Halloween Plays Presented

short Halloween plays were pre-

"Peter Pigs Halloween" and the

After the plays, two songs that had been learned in music classes were

ston, Miss G. P. Dillard, and Mr.

Elementary PTA Meets

The Roxboro Elementary School

tional period led by Mr. R. L. Hair-

ston, Miss G. P. Dillard, and Mr.

and successful business meeting

presented by the c'ass.

porary society." How this challenge at the Y-Extension last Thursday helping teendgers solve their prob- is met may well determine the > the recreational needs of youth was suggested as a desirable goal for the community. In discussion following the panel cational and recreational facilities of the community. In a brief summary, Mrs. T. T. the positive recognition of the val- Daley, counselor at Ligon, pledged plementing the suggestions of the set aside each November to promote interest of young people in reading good books, and to help them develop a good taste in literature. She demonstrated how to use books and how to care for them; and gave illustrations of the 90 or above:

Garner

LISTS HONOR ROLL

different types of books for inforsented a play entitled "The Book Whitaker, Dallas Foster, Donald key Dinner, served at the YWCA. Parade". Every member in the class McCoy.

participated. The group received praise from students and teachers by the hostess. Members present alike for presenting such a well Willett Smith, Bennie Manning were: Mrs. Pauline Cates, Miss organized, enjoyable and educa- Dennis Morgan. 10th A: Albei In a recent assembly program at Rogers. Charles Whitaker. Gloria Avery, Patricia Leach, Rose Stur Roxboro Elementary School Mrs. E. T. Herring's 3rd grade presented | divant.

a very unique and interesting pro-McKoy, Bettie McKinley, Elizabeth gram. After the routine devotional program, by the whole class, two Hodge. 8th A: Julia Hinton, Iris Walton, Walter Stephens, Jr. sented. The first play was titled 7th A: Lenora Harris, Katherine second "The Pumpkins Have Fun".

Perry, Cleno Harris.

8th A: Wilbert Hunter 5th B: Deborah Hunter. 4th A: Monya White.

last Monday night. After a devo-Garris, Lorov Hoster, The J. W. Ligon School PTA B. D. Walker, a very informative Hinton, Jr., Allen Avery.

was held under the direction of Adams, Bren's Cubert. Mr. Moses Russess, the president. P"A use in helping their children a- and Mr. S. B. Spencer, the prin-After the routine and new business session was over, Miss Georgia McCoy, music teacher at Person County High School, showed slides and talked about her trip to Europe last summer.

> Mrs. Bernice Mitchell was elected as delegate to the District III PTA meeting.

Robeson is North Carolina's leading cotton producing county. Northampton County leads talk over their problems. North Carolina in peanut acreage. is a continuous process.

It Pays To charge of the program and PTA president J. C. Washington will ADVERTISE

RELSKA VODKA

100 Proof Made from Grain by L. Reisky & Cie. Cockeysville, Md., U.S.A.

YUCA

OBSERVANCE YWCA's in more than 1600 com-unities in the United States, in-luding Raleigh, and in the 69 ountries where there is Associaion work will abserve World Fel-

In keeping with the custom started in 1948, the YWCA of the USA

will keynote the American celebration with an observance in the Washington, D. C. Cathedral, Dr.

Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, a leading Methodist layman and for-University, will be the speaker. His

this Year's World Fellowship

Attending the service from Raeigh, will be Mrs. I. J. Delany,

Committee who will be among the

YWCA Calendar

anization, Twelfth Grade Y-Teens

Dance Class, Mr. Howard Pullen

Mr

instructor: Thursday, Nov. 12: Eng-ish Grammar Class: French Class.

Twelfth Grade Y-Trens: Saturday,

Nov. 14, TV Teen Frolin; Shirley's

School of Dance, Mrs. Shirley Bad-

ett. instructor; Tags Private Party: Sunday, Nov. 15: World Fellowship Observance, Mrs. Alma West, chairman; Public Affairs Commit-

lee. Mrs. Bessie Chavis, chairman

Tuesday, Nov. 17: Drapery Class:

Wednesday, Nov. 18: Shirley's

cett, instructor: Y-Wives Club. Mrs.

Alice Smith, president: St. Augustine's College Alumni, Mr George

Foxwell, president: Thursday, Nov.

19: Teen Tops Private Party: Eng-eph Poole, president; Saturday

Nov. 21: Shirley's School of Dance.

licerses were issued to the following persons during the past

JOEL L. GREEN, 22, of Youngs-talling St., Clafton and CATHER-

INE BRYANT, 17, of Smith Street,

WILLIAM H. FOGG, 20, of Wake

Forest, Route 3, and BARBARA

JEAN FOWLER, 19, of Wake For-

Durham

Hews

BY MES, IDA SCURLOCK

2016 WEST MAIN STREET

DURHAM -- Mr. William Ma-

berry has returned from the Veterans Hospital and is doing nice-

Mrs. Clara Bolden returned from the Memorail Hospital in Chapel

mons, Mrs. Cora Womack, Mr. William Bowling, and Mr. Dallas Cole.

Mrs. Mollie Tilley is taking her

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Pearley have moved to their new home on

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE I)

Housing, Mrs. Hattie Edmondson.

chairman; social, Miss Odessa Wal-ace; invitation. Mrs. Fannie Latham; decoration, Miss Thelma figure, Mrs. Fannie Latham; music.

Escort, Mrs. Phyllis Mann: bookorinator, Mrs. Susie V. Porry: time

nlace and rehearsal. Mrs. Myrtle

Wallace; and publicity, Mrs Sylold the court how his 34-year-old common law wife of four years

Mics Annie Mae Stewart, had left

ome early on the day of the shooting, and how he had found her at the home of Mrs. Fannie lawkins, also a Fouth Street resi

ant. The defendant said he knock-d on the door of the home but

Proving into a window, Calvesaid he saw Miss Stewart, who was let, Mrs. Ophelia Irving; girls' co-

Sedgefield Street in Walltown.

DEB BALL

Mrs. Martha Wheeler.

SHOT WEONG

MAN. GAINES

TELLS JUDGE

vas not admitted.

cia W. Payne.

DATE IS

Mrs. Gertrude Dunn Tim-

22, of Wendell, Route 2. Nov. 5

week

Clauton, Nov. 6.

ly at home.

clude:

est. Route 1, Nov. 7.

School of Dance, Mrs. Shirley Bad-

Monday, Nov. 16: Sewing Class:

T Daley, advisor; Adult

R. Lynch, instructor; Youth

Wed., Nov. 11: Shirley's School

owship Week, November 8-14.

kins, of Durham: Frank, Eddie Maurice, Lenzie, Andrew J., all of nore than 2000 YWCA representaives from across the country as well as from countries overseas at Committee of the "Y" will present a program at YWCA. Sunday, November 15 at 3:00 p.m. The public s invited to this special service of prayers for peace and rededication of the Christian purpose of the lebs rests with everyone in the quality of our social order in the A social period followed the busiyears ahead. Maximum use of com- ness session of the Club. munity resources in providing for of Dance, Mrs. Shirley Badgett, Instructor; Dance School Mothers or-presentation, council members were asked to encourage maximum utlization of libraries and other edu-ins of recreation for an abundant the support of the council in impanel in providing love, care, and the balanced growth and develop- affection as we, "build today's youth for tomorrow's leaders.'

School News

GARNER- The Guidance Personnel of the Garner Consolidated 'ish Grammar Class: French Class. High School listed the following Mr. R. Lynch, instructor; Priday, names of pupils with averages of Nov. 20: Royal 20's Party. Mr. Jo-

12th: Charles Brandon, Carolyn Christmas, Josephine Bowden, Joan Mrs. Shirley Badgett, instructor; Ployd, Barbara Rainseur, Dorothy Ways and Means Committee Tur

Bobby McClain, Allie Williams, Edna Laws, Alice Rogers

Mann, James McNeill, William

7th B: Ernestine Mangum 7th C: Patricia Turner.

4th B: Carolyn Morgan, Monica

PTA met in the school auditorium Hinton. 4th C: Liliniana Davis Sandra 3rd C: Portia White, Mary Vales, Amanda Avery, Gene Yates, Glern and P. Morvin Lowley, Clifton

> The Carner Consolidated High School PTA met the first Monday night in November. The President. Mr. Nord Hayes was in charge After the business meeting, Mrs. Alice Solomon, the guidance counselor, spoke on "The Purpose of a Guidance Program" She stressed four Hill. Other people who are sick inareas of guidance. The areas were, In The Home, School, Church and Community." The Parents and Teachers were then divided into four areas for a fail vacation. buzz session of fifteen minutes to Each group had a chairman and a recorder to report to the body after they had reassembled. Mrs. Solomon was well pleased with the

The meeting was then adjourned followed by a Fellowship Hour during which time a tasty repast was enjoyed by all.

Milk secretion in a sow's udder Watkins; gifts, Mrs. Gladys Hunt; A pole-type shelter open on all sides will preject cows from summer heat.

THE CAROLINIAN nhisher by the Caminian Publishing Company 518 East Martin Street

Raieigh N. C. Raieigh April Matter April Princed as Second Class Matter April 8 1940 at the Post Office in Bule-Di. North Caro ha under the Act of Wirth 1870) SUSSCRIPTION RATES

The Year Parable in Advance Address all includes in municipalities and make all diocks in money anders pavable to THE CAR Interitate United Newspapers National Advertising Benresentative and member of the Associated Nation Press and the United Press Photo

P R JERVAY Publisher the Punisher is not restaustive to ner president of Ohio Weslevan QUEENS FOR DEBUTANTE BALL - in-Town Queen for the address will be based on the theme Alpha Kappa Alpha Debutante ball, November 26, 1956, is Miss Elaine Johnson, Raleigh, left. Her maid of honor will be Miss Nancy Iredelle Observance, "Make known His and her court will be Misses Matrye Latta, Carolyn Chavis, Patricia Andrews and Gloria Debnam. The Out-of-Town Queen will be Miss Paula Jewell, right, Greensboro. Her mald of honor will be Miss Evelyn Kennedy, Durham. The court will be Misses Marsha Goodwin, nember of the World Fellowship Leah Ramsey, Jean Ledbetter and Debora Saunders.

FUTURE HOME MAKERS AT WORK - These young ladies are practicing now to become homemakers of tomorrow. They are all pupils of the Tuttle Community Center here. From left to right are: Misses Delsenia Murchison, (mixing), Patsie Smith, (measuring), and Yvonne Anders, (beating). Mrs. Mary E. Carnage is executive director of Tuttle.

in bed. He claimed that he also Richardson released them on $1,noticed articles of clothing belonging to "Rabbi," and saw Dunn peeping into the room from behind

"I took the next bus to Greensboro," said Gaines. There he acquired a .38 caliber pistol, and returned to Mrs. Hawkins' home late the same night. He said the woman admitted him through the back door and sold him a 50-cent drink of whiskey, then he proceeded into the living room, where he saw and shot Logan, thinking he was "Rabbi."

Mrs. Hawkins claims Gaines broke into the house and steadfastly denied granting him per-

Clate Briefs

Thomas Thornley, both of the St. Augustine's faculty, and has been coached by Henry Blackmon, formerly of Shaw, and Miss Gerville, N. C. and CAROL E. JONES, aldine Cate of St. Mary's Junior ALPHONSO SANDERS, 21, of 250

College here. Horton sings with much feeling and expression and possesses good

TO SING ON TV SHOW RALEIGH

Andrew J. (Any) Hunt of 4 31 aden Street. vill sing on l'eenage Prolics, WRAL - TV Saturday at 1 p. m. Hunt, who composed "Pretty Girl" and "Queen of Hearts" is well-known in this area as a former leader of the "Teenage Kents", with whom he sang lead, and the "Chequillars," singing 2nd tenor. A student at the J. W. Ligon High High School here, Hunt uses the stage name of "Rocking Andy." He is scheduled to appear on the Allan Freed Show, a national dance party, on November 28. Master of ceremonies on the show is J. D. Lewis, pop ular announcer in this area ity"), a senior from Parmele. Following the graveside ceremony, students, faculty, alumni and frends will procced to the University Church where the observanse will continuc. Attorney Brooks will speak at 11:00 a.m. The public is invited.

ATT'Y BROOKS TO SHAW FOR FOUNDER'S DAY (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

DECOMPOSED Crockett: sponsors, Miss Odessa BODY OF YOUTH FOUND

CONTINUED FROM PAGE IT Dr. Wester said, after a tentative autopsy, that he could not determine the time of death because of the condition of the bo-

Testifying on the stand, Gaines MIXED PAIR CAUGHT: TO COURT SOON

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE I) complained about the arrange ment. The couple specifically was charged under a Virginia law probibiling whites and Negroes from leaving the state to get married and then returning here to live. Police Court Judge Liewelyn lary schools, Raleigh;

000 bond each but told them to face a grand jury on the marriage charge. He continued another charge of lewd and lascivious con-

DECISION OF COURT UNFAIR

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) ment's reversal of its opnion if and federal violations were incurred during the lynching April 25 reveals "somebody in Washington is confused.

Circuit Judge Sebe Dale, who commended the Pearl River Jury after receiving its report, said he has "just as much respect for our state court as federal courts

EASTERN GRID PLAYOFF SET HERE FRIDAY

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1) 245-pound tackle who has been stalwart in the Hornets' forward wall, but is unlikely to start because of a fractured jaw received in the Hornet-Little Blues' first encounter. The Hornets use the "Belly Series", split "T", and runs from kick formation.

Much to the delight of their sun porters, the Durham team has been able to spring alloose their fancy backs time and again to run over their opponents while their big line yeilded little yardage against op posing runners.

FLORIDA HATE SIGNS SEEN IN MANY CITIES (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

The foregoing was painted on some 25 signs attached to crudely made wooden rifles. They were found planted in several yards. Police were uncertain whether the signs were a prank or a serious attempt to stir up race violence. Similar signs were found in Tampa, West Palm Beach, and St. Petersburg.

PURSE RING BROKEN: FIVE BOUND OVER (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

youth climb into a car with four other persons and race away. The boys bound over to Superior Court included William Johnson, 19, and his 18-year-old brother, Robert Earl Johnson, Wallace Horton, 18, Andy Mc-Clain and Rogers, 19.

Bowers said Rogers admitted he took the purse, containing $95 in checks and cash, and drove with his ecompanions to a spot where they divided the loot.

The officers said Robert Earl Johnson admitted trying to cash the checks at a local bank.

PTA CONGRESS SETS ASHEVILLE CONVENTION (CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

The keynote address will be delivered by Dr. H. L. Trigg, member of the State Board of Education.

Raleigh, who will interpret the theme at the general session on Friday evening in the school auditorium. Other speakers and leaders include: Mrs. A. R. Knight, national president, LaGrange, Ga.: Mrs. Georgia Barbee, health educator, School Health Coordinating Services, Raleigh: Mrs. Ruth Lawrence Woodson, state supervisor, elemen-

Suitcase Stuff By "Skink" Browning

Mrs. Vivian Rogers of 4 Edgecombe Terrace is home after a bri confinement at St. Agnes Hospital. Miss Barbara Crockett of Raleigh and a certain young man ar

The vivacious and attractive secretary at Meyers Street School in Charlotte, allegedly, gives her initials as "DH" but her last name

Mr. Pasion Lassiter and lovely wife, Gracia, of Clayton will so receive a stork visit.

The William E. Hunts of N. State St. in Raleigh will soon witness the wedding of their talented daughter Ann. Mrs. Sarah Nickens, receptionist at the Excelsior Club in Ch lotte prohibits non-members from crashing the door, without o

My trap dropped me between Concord and Charlotte on highway 29 at 8 p.m. in the rain ... refused to cooperate on any terms A seven-mile walk to a public telephone that was out of order upon arrival caused me to seek any light that beamed to my eyes from the highway.

An sfay family gave me telephone service which brought rid assistance from Charlotte But somehow, they missed me on t road back to the car; but picked up my waiting companion. O Carrington, who locked the trap and took the keys. The redoubled seven-mile walk still found me in the rain wi nowhere to go. So I started on the 20-mile walk to Charlotte, but passing motorist gave me a lift to my Charlotte address . Carrington was sitting there smiling and waiting and sa Where did you go? Mr. Easterling and I looked for you everywhere Publicityman and CAROLINIAN representative, George McKeitha assisted in getting gas to the trap the next day. Mrs. Isabelia K. Barnes, the mother of CAROLINIAN promotion man Alexander Barnes died Tuesday at her home in Durham. Mr. Scipio Easterling, principal of Mineral Springs High School in Ellerbee, will be awarded $1,000.00 cash by Century Metalcraf

Corp., which he won as a participant in their summer salesman

FOR SALE 605 E. HARGETT ST. 7 Rooms & Tile Bath

TE 2-5721 or TE 2-3163

THE RESTFUL PINES COUNTRY CLUB AND MOTEL

Appreciate your early reservation for the "Glass House for your holiday parties and social activities.

Write or Phone MGR., EDDIE MORRIS SANDERS, 311 New Bern Ave., Raleigh, N. C. Tele. TEmple 2-2072 or TEmple

We Appreciate Your Business

FRESH PORK SAUSAGE 3 lbs. 79c

Quality Toilet

3 LBS. 25c FRESH PIG FEET

Fresh Pork Neck Bones Weiners 4-lbs. 990 Gold Flour Gold Seal

Fresh Pork Spare Ribs 4 lbs. 99c

Eatwell Tall No. 212 can Sardines Gold Medal Tall Can Mayonnaise

Open Friday Night Until 9 P.M.

1415-17 S. SAUNDERS ST. Dial TE 3-2851

YOU CAN DRESS

LADIES'

JACKETS PANTS

MEN'S

CLOTHES FOR LITTLE GIRLS

CLOTHES FOR LITTLE BOYS

IT'S EASY TO PAY THE O. K. WAY!

113 E MARTIN ST

YESER