heard anything from them since.
He was not conversant with many of the grievances that have been aired throughout the state. The most recent being in Mecklenburg County, where the white home economist is alleged to have resigned and then decided that she would stay on the job until such time as the County Commissioners acted.

The CAROLINIAN learned this week that Mrs. Hassie Smith Torian, a native of Orange County and currently living in Greensboro, has been named to succeed Mrs. Mildred Peyton, in Chatham County, January 1. It is to be remembered that Mrs. Peyton resigned in a huff, a few weeks ago, after what she is alleged to have termed as a stormy stay with both the local and state offices.
Mrs. Torian is said to have had extensive experience in the field, having worked in Rowan, Robeson and Pasquotank Counties. She is a graduate of North Carolina College at Durham and the mother of a three-year-old child.

Hickory, is state daughter president. There are 60 lodges in the association.
Warren G. Cabaniss is exalted ruler of the Reciprocity Lodge and Mrs. Marie Guyton is daughter-ruler of Emma Kelly Temple. The 29 daughter - Elks cooperated wholeheartedly with the 47 'Bills' in giving outstanding entertainment to 100 visiting Bills and Daughters from over the state.

In a letter of 'official welcome', Shelby's Mayor Harry S. Woodson said: "... Shelby appreciates the consideration shown us by selecting our city as a place to hold this annual meeting." He added, "We consider it an honor and a pleasure to have you with us..."
Following registration is the new, well-appointed lodge home Saturday morning the executive officers and departmental heads got down to projecting the Order's work for 1960 which will be climaxed with the state association convention in High Point in mid-May. The Daughters presented an auxiliary-hour contest at night and this was followed by a social hour which delighted the light-footed delegates.

LAKE YIELDS HUBBY'S BODY IN FORSYTH

automobile was found last weekend on a private road in Reynolds Estates.
Officers said they had no reason to suspect suicide until they could find no trace of Richardson.
The Rescue Squad was called to the lake early yesterday to begin grappling operations. The body was fully clothed when it was found about 40 feet from the bank in 8 to 10 feet of water.
Richardson, a native of Pinehurst, had been living with a friend near the golf course prior to the death of his wife and his disappearance. He and Mrs. Richardson were separated. They were married in February, 1947.
Before he joined the staff at the golf course in May, 1956, Richardson had worked at Salem Mercantile Co., Jones Bakery and Winston Steam Laundry.

tainly substantiate the interest of Raleigh and Wake County citizens in good schools."
Voting in the predominantly Negro precincts was relatively light. These three are 20, 25 and 26.
Precinct 20, located at Lucille Hunter School, reported 13 for the issue and 19 against it.
Precinct 25, located in the Wake County Health Building, reported 38 for and 1 against.
Crosby-Garfield School, which houses Precinct 26, saw 135 vote for the school bond issue and 15 against it.

NC MASONS CONVENING AT WILSON

never more money, but the sad part about it is there was never a time that a dollar would buy so little. He called attention to the fact that with all the money in the world there were many hungry people in some places and gross waste in others.
He called upon the Masons to walk in the traditions of the members of their race who had made such great contributions to the development of the world and to forget not that Prince Hall founded the organization on principles that made it a bulwark for freedom, a refuge in time of trouble and a citadel for those who would live by its precepts.
He closed by admonishing them to register and vote and above all to back the NAACP. He called the militant body the strength of the race and asked the Masons to support it to the man so that it could continue to fight for the rights of minority people.
The convention began Monday night with registration. The Lodge of Sorrow was also held at that time, with Rev. D. J. Marlow, Durham, Grand Chaplain, in charge. He was scheduled to have been assisted by Rev. A. C. Cook, Asheville. Reports were the feature of the Tuesday meeting, with all officers relating how the Order had progressed during the year.
The public session was held on Tuesday night, with Milton F. Fitch, general chairman, presiding. Local persons, representing the several phases of the life of Wilson, brought greetings.
The Fred Davis Men's Chorus of the First Baptist Church furnished the music. H. V. Brown, Deputy of the 4th district, spoke in behalf of the district.
W. A. Clement, Durham, made the address and admonished his hearers to hold fast to the gains made and to work the harder for more gains. The appeal for Oxford Orphanage was made by its superintendent, Rev. T. H. Brooks. He told of the accomplishments of the school and how the recipients appreciated it, but called attention to the fact that the requirements were much greater than in previous years and therefore the contributions would of necessity have to be bigger.
The Wednesday session is slated to get underway at noon and is expected to include the election of officers. Dr. Carnes retired as of this meet and immediately was given the title of Honorary Past Grant Master, with special rights and consideration. He held the post for 13 years.

FOR WOMEN

BY BETTY COOK FOR ANP HOSTESS LOVES TO PRESENT CAKE
Every hostess loves that moment when she presents a cake of her own making. The guests pay compliments and smile their appreciation, realizing, of course, that it is an honor to be served a beautiful homemade cake.
Nowadays, a hostess does not have to bake every cake from scratch, beginning with sifting the flour and sugar and so on. Instead she may want to save time to devote to other dishes by starting her cake with a box of cake mix.
Two neat layers quickly made from a mix gives her a dependably good foundation, and from there she can proceed to make a distinctive filling and frosting which will turn these layers into a cake she can call her very own.
