

Look, Be Alive! Golden

82 Africans Killed In Riots

THE CAROLINIAN

North Carolina's Leading Weekly

VOL. 19, NO. 24

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 26, 1960

PRICE 15c

MASS REGISTRATION SET HERE

Boycott Plan Blamed As

Principal Under Fire

JACK'S BACK — Returning to his job, Manhattan Borough President Hulan Jack waves in the corridor outside of his office last week. Jack, who suspended himself from office without pay last January when he was indicted on conspiracy and city charter violation charges, returned to his post after General Sessions Judge Gerald Calkin dismissed a four-count indictment against him. (UPI PHOTO).

NC Student Legislature Hears Author

The North Carolina Student Legislature closed out its three-day (Thursday to Saturday) activities at the Capitol last week as Harry Golden of Charlotte in a speech asked the delegates to "watch and be alive" to the sit-down protests occurring in the South. "Someday you will be happy that you lived in this time," the speaker said, "because something is happening... you are watching a movement in which religious principles are being applied."

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Boy Struck By Truck Improves

Waylon Dexter Watson, 7, of 112 Battery Drive, was reportedly improving at Duke Hospital after being struck by a truck last Friday morning as he made his way to school.

He was critically injured. The accident took place at the corner of Pettigrew and Hargett Sts. The child was first taken to St. Agnes Hospital, but was transferred after receiving emergency treatment. Thomas Lee Broadie, 34, of Zebulon, was charged with speeding in excess of 35 miles per hour. A police officer said the truck skidded 133 feet before hitting

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Pupils Are Expelled By Principal

DARLINGTON, S. C. — A Darlington County Negro school principal faced court action seeking his removal Saturday after he dismissed several students allegedly because they refused to drink milk bought from firms being boycotted by Negroes.

The suit was filed in the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Trial Of Students Here Fri.

Two students of Shaw University were arrested Monday afternoon for refusing to leave the lunch counter at McEllan's Store here. Their trials have been set for Friday morning in City Court.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Murder-Stabbing

CHINA GROVE — A patrol at a dance hall near here was shot to death early Saturday after he knifed a musician during an argument.

Rowan County Deputy Sheriff John Demarcus said the musician, Roosevelt Welch, 22, of Charlotte, shot James W. Field, 25, of Salisbury five times with a .22 caliber pistol.

Field was dead on arrival at a Salisbury hospital and Welch was hospitalized at Concord for treatment of a knife wound in the stomach. Demarcus said Welch would be charged with murder.

AT STUDENT LEGISLATURE — Glenford Mitchell, left, and Miss Lois Covington, both Shaw University students, are shown above studying a bill during the Student Legislature meeting here last weekend. (See story this page).

GRAHAM IN ETHIOPIA — Addressing a crowd of thousands, American evangelist Billy Graham speaks from the rostrum in Harle Sessie Stadium, Ethiopia, March 18. Graham is currently on a tour of Africa. (UPI PHOTO).

Roy Wilkins, Thurgood Marshall Spark Mass Meetings In State

Secretary Speaks In 'Bull City'

"LIKE SAID MORE TO INDIANS THAN TO US"—WILKINS

BY J. B. HARREN

DURHAM — Speaking to an audience of some 800 people who crowded St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church here Thursday night, even to overflowing into the basement where they listened over the loud-speaker, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, made it unmistakably clear that although NAACP did not initiate the six weeks of "lunch-counter sit-ins," the organization would be backing them with legal and moral support.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ROY WILKINS — Durham speaker

Chief Legal Counsel In Charlotte

CHARLOTTE — Thurgood Marshall, director of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund, told a mass meeting Sunday "the cry for freedom is increasing in tempo throughout the world."

"Thus the sit-in strikes of young people throughout the South are the latest evidence of this wave." Speaking at a meeting to kick-off the organization's membership drive, Marshall said "young people, in the true tradition of our democratic principles are fighting the matter for all of us and they are doing it in a most effective way."

"These young people are just

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

All-Out Efforts Planned

Plans for an all-out drive to enroll at least 1,200 Negroes upon the voting rolls of Raleigh, have just about been completed, according to the Rev. C. W. Ward, pastor of First Baptist Church and chairman, Registration and Voting Committee, Raleigh Branch, NAACP.

Working in conjunction with the Raleigh Citizens Association and the AKA Sorority, an effort will be made to call upon every unregistered Negro within the city.

An "army" of volunteer workers are being trained for this visitation. These workers will explain

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Police Kill 34 Africans

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa — Rioting against the white supremacy laws of this area have mounted to the point where it is estimated some 82 Africans have been killed by police in the South African section. Approximately 54 others are injured.

Police opened fire on a crowd of stone-throwing Africans protesting a government law requiring them to carry identification passes. Many Africans, some of them women, were killed.

A correspondent personally counted 34 bodies, including those of eight women.

An official at Vereeniging

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Walter Browning Buried; Hundreds Attend Funeral

BY ALEXANDER BARNES (SEE PICTURES ON PAGE 11) Editor's note: Due to the esteem in which the late Walter Browning, Sr., was held, evidenced by the number of people who attended the funeral, THE CAROLINIAN is giving a detailed account of the rites held for him Sunday, March 20.

12:00 Noon — The first line of cars moved from the home in Washington Terrace, carrying the family and close friends. At the same time eight of his fellow barbers loaded the State casket into the black and white hearse, in front of the Raleigh Funeral Home, where hundreds of people gathered to get a glimpse of the casket, in which the commotion was laid.

12:35 — The procession was proceeding through Milburne Road to Oakwood Avenue, and thence to Taylor Street. It proceeded thru New Bern Avenue to Person Street, where the

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

L. E. Austin Challenges Raleigh NAACP Body

The Manly Street Christian Church was the scene Sunday afternoon, March 20, of one of the most successful meetings ever held by the Raleigh Branch of the NAACP. An estimated 500 persons were present.

The meeting was presided over by John Williams, Jr., branch president and was highlighted by a spirited talk given by Louis Austin, editor and publisher of the Carolina Times.

A brief business session preceded the address of Editor Austin. Dr. Marguerite Adams told about the unsuccessful efforts of the labor committee have made in trying to get some favorable preliminary actions relative to the unsegregated use of the soon to be completed Wake County General Hospital.

Dr. W. L. Green, speaking for the educational committee expressed

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2 Horton's Cash Store
- PAGE 3 Jean's of Raleigh
- Federal Acceptance Corporation
- Daughter Stores, Inc.
- Davis Street Coin Laundromat
- James A. Shepard
- Watson's Restaurant
- Raleigh Savings & Loan Ass'n
- PAGE 4 Hindson-Bell
- J. C. Penney's Department Store
- Electrical Wholesalers, Inc.
- Capital Coca-Cola Bottling Company
- Correll Coal Company
- John W. Winters & Company
- S. M. Young Hardware Store
- Consolidated Credit Corporation
- PAGE 6 Mechanics & Farmers Bank
- Cameron Brown Company
- O. R. Clothing Store
- Dawson's Tobacco Service Station
- PAGE 7 Sanders Motor Company
- Thomas's Food Market
- PAGE 8 Colonial Stores, Inc.
- R. E. Quinn Furniture Company
- Modern Pharmacy Company
- L. & W. Tire Company
- Taylor Radio & TV Service
- Public Service Company of N. C.
- C. Karl Lieberman
- PAGE 9 A&P Food Stores, Inc.
- First Citizens Bank & Trust Co.
- Speedy Wash, Inc.
- Firestone Store, Inc.
- Elford's Department Store
- J. C. Raines, Esso Dealer
- PAGE 10 Bloodworth Street Tourist Home
- Ridgeway Opticians
- Carolina Builders, Inc.
- Caviness Insurance Company
- 7-Up Bottling Company
- Dillon Motor Finance Company
- Watson's Safford & Pontley
- Bankers Fire Insurance Company
- Warner Memorials
- The Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company
- PAGE 11 Griffiths Food Store
- PAGE 13 Ambassador Theatre
- PAGE 16 Hunt General Tire Company
- Dunn's Esso Service Center
- Raleigh Funeral Home
- Acme Realty Company
- Gem Watch Shop
- Branch Banking & Trust Company
- Standard Concrete Products Co.
- Raleigh Seafood Company
- Winous Bakery & Poultry
- Tom Cut Rate Clothing Store
- Walker-Martin, Inc.

CHEERFUL MOOD — Seemingly undaunted by the fact that the judge turned down a defense motion for a mistrial in his income tax evasion case, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell is all smiles as he leaves Federal Court for the luncheon recess in New York March 16th. Presiding Judge Frederick vanPelt Bryan refused the plea of Powell's attorney, Edwin Bennett Williams, for a mistrial and ordered the trial to proceed. (UPI PHOTO).

State News Brief

ASSISTED BY RED CROSS — RALEIGH — The American Red Cross assisted in 296 disasters last year, 89,000 disaster victims were given food, clothing and shelter. More than 17,000 families received rehabilitation help following disasters.

At the present time The American Red Cross is shipping anti-biotics to Morocco, along with shipments of wheat. Eight nurses have been sent into the area and a cash gift of 25,000 for immediate purchase of medical and other emergency supplies has been sent.

While Red Cross chapters are not actively campaigning for funds for Agadir victims, all have been advised to accept contributions for

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Constitution Series Now In Paper

Beginning with this edition, page 11, THE CAROLINIAN will carry the entire Constitution of the United States and North Carolina in a series of articles.

We feel that the public is interested in knowing, first-

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

"Ask and it shall be given, knock and the door shall be open unto you."

BACK AGAIN — About 18 months ago, we suspended this column in order to make a little trip, promising to resume its operation upon our return. Well, we are back and so, here it is.

Looking over the scene and beholding all the confusion, frustration and downright hypocrisy which is everywhere evident, we don't know whether to act like the proverbial groundhog and beat a hasty retreat or to stay around and take a chance or survival.

Since we have never been accused of using too much discretion, we don't see how we can do too much changing at this late date, so we guess we will just have to plow along in our old muleish ways. There is

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)