Nation's Youths Praise Sit Downs

IFF CAROLINES

Fractures

Of Skull

Are Fatal

burning automobile

Steering

Body Is

Englance of ticy-making group.

Open Letter:

Citizens

Fines Here

At the last regular weekly meet-

As a result, the association's treasurer, C. C. Smith, Jr., was authorized to use $1,175 of the association's funds for this purpose. $1500 was expended to lawyers for the cases in lower court totalling $2.675 spent to date for court and legal fees.

on "private" sidewalks there.

Mr Smith reported that the sum officers arrested a Negro last week on murder charges in the death of an insurance salesman whose body was found last December in a

Sheriff Ralph Miller said

Jesse James Oates, 32, formerly of Faison, was charged with

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

The steering committee of th Raleigh Citizens Association has recently been enlarged through the order to provide larger areas of representation for this important

The new members are, Ross Fowler, Charles Robson, Atty F. J. Carnage, Edward Curtis, and Dr P

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

addition of five new members.

Raleigh Hosting N. C. Teachers

Officers Arrest Suspect In

DEATH OF SALESHAN

Chain Store Managers

southern cites where Negro protests against lunch counter segregation began two months ago accused chain store managers this week of blocking a proposed compromise solution.

Mayor George Roach of Green boro, and his nine-member committee proposed that the local F W. Woolworth and S. H. Kress variety stores set up a section of their funch counters for "service to all races on an integrated basis' and reserve other space for white

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Egibs. a. g & coab M. Alburabury Hon deservance.

The Richard B. Harrison Public Library is celebrating National Library Week this week along with libraries throughout the country. The theme this year is Open Wonderful New Worlds Wake Up and Read." This event is sponsored by the National Book with the American Library Asso-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

"And forgive us our debts

as we forgive our debtors." Mayor, Advisory Committee

there is no other way.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

PAGE 2 Arnold Jacob's Vogue The Lounge

Horton's Cash Store PAGE 3

Firestone Stores, Inc. Burnett's Resisurant Griffis Food Store

Famous Bakery

PAGE 5 Budson-Belk

People's Cafe

Paul's Drive-in

O. K. Clothing Store Nile Congo Drive In

Marliyn's Shoe Store Betty Gay Butler's Shoe Store I. J. Fallon Co.

arolina Power & Light Company

Mechanics & Farmers Bank Pepsi-Cola Bottlin; Co. of Baleigh

John W. Winters & Company Baleigh Savings & Loan Ass'n PAGE 6

Cameron Brown Company

Heilig-Levine Furniture Co.

Johnson-Lambe Co. PAGE 8 Goodman's Ladies Shopps

J. J. Bullon Co.
Paterson Travel Service, Inc.
Parkway Grill
Harris Wholesale
Pace 9
O'Neal Motors, Inc.
Thomas Food Market
Watson's Restaurant
Capital Bargain Store
PAGE 16
S. M. Foung Bardware Stor
Colonial Stores, Inc.

Young Bardware Store

S. M. Foung Bardware Store
Colonial Stores, Inc.
Idom Cut Rate Ciothing Store
C. Karl Licthman
Cubile Service Company of N. C.
R. E. Quinn Furniture Company
Taylor Radio & TV Service
Modern Finance Company
L. & W. Tire Company
PAGE 11
3AP Food Stores, Inc.
Elird's Denariment Store

Effed's Department Store First Citizens Bank & Trust Co.

Federal Acceptance Corporation Speedy Wash, Inc. The Capital Coca Cola Bottling Co.

CAROLINIAN -

ADVERTISERS

RECEPTION FOR KHRUSHCHEV - Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev (right) smiles R. Robinson. during a reception in his honor at the Hotel Matignon in Paris recently. The Hotel Matignon is the residence of the French Premier Michel Debre. Standing near the Soviet leader are Philibert Tstranana (left), president of the Republic of Madagascar, and Felix Houphouet-Boigny, Prime Minister of the Ivory Coast. Khrushchev made an 11-day state visit to France. (UPI PHOTO).

Teachers Of Tarheelia In Annual 3-Day Session Here Group Pays

the North Carolina Teachers Association will bring to Raleigh out-We cannot agree with Roy Wil- standing speakers whose messages kins that it is too late for inter- are needed by both teachers and racial commissions to do any good, the public during this period when toward the settlement of racial reappraisal of education and humisunderstandings. As we see it, man relations is paramount. The it is never too late for men of keynote address Thursday evegoodwill to work together toward ning, April 7th in Memorial Audi- of Anthropology at New York Uni- Appearing also on the session the equitable resolving of any torium will be given by Dr. Corma versity will be one of the speakers Friday evening will be Dr. John lege and Shaw University be paid problem. We are tempted to go so A. Mowrey, Associate Director of on Friday evening, April 8th Dr. W. Davis, President Emeritus of by the association ucation Association

Dr. Mowrey has come un through the ranks of NEA

Atlas Sewing Center Restful Pines Country Club Correll Coal Company PAGE 14

PAGE 15 Sconigomery - Ward Joy's American Grill Browning Barber Shop

J. C. Saunders State Distributing Corp.

Wake Tire Co.
Jates Grocers
Poole's Pie Shop
Byrum Lumber Co.
Sir Walter Chevrolet Co.
Lotton Barber Shop
American Home Products
Elird's of Raleigh
Cross Poultry Co.
Clark Art Shop, Inc.
Sanders Motor Company
Mother & Daughter Stores
Central Drug Store
James H. Anderson & Company
Market Barber Shop
Long Meadow Farms, Inc.
Carolina Typewriter Co.
PAGE 12

in Typewriter Co

Ambassador abcompany PAGE 20 Hunt General Tire Company

Hont General Tire Company Dunn's Esso Servicenter Raleigh Funeral Home Acme Really Company Raleigh Scafood Company Standard Concrete Products Co. Gem Watch Shop Davie Street Coin Laundremat Consolidated Credit Corporation Davidson's Associates Shoe Mark

Shoe Mart Branch Banking & Trust Company Amburn Pontiae Co.

PAGE 17 Ambassador Theatre

Paul's Drive-In Hudson-Belk Co. Carolina Bnick Co. Wake Tire Co.

Bloodworth Street Tourist Home

Bloodworth Street Tourist Home Ridgeway Opticians Carolina Builders, the Caveness Insurance Company T-Up Bottling Company Dillon Motor Finance Company Watson's Seafood & Poultry Bankers Fire Insurance Company Warner Memorials The Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company PAGE 15

the critical Forties and now serves in one of the most important positions. She is a forceful speaker whose message is also informing and challenging.

Dr. Ethel J. Alpenfels, Professor open to the public. far as declaring that essentially. Lay Relations for the National Ed. Albenfels, as a tencher, has had West Virginia State College, past rich experience teaching courses in chairman of the NEA Defense al and human relations problems throughout the nation. Her coming to Raleigh is especially timely as ing of the Raleigh Citizens Assothe community is involved with ciation, it was unanimously agreed adjusting to new ideas. Evening to adopt the recommendation of sessions of the convention are the association's streering committee that the supreme court appeal education and sociology as well as. Commission, and at present, Specanthropology. She is called on con- ial Director for Teacher Information and Security of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund. In connection with Dr. Davis' present position he has recently traveled throughout the United States and abroad, especially in of $43.00 had been paid to J. E. Europe and Africa, speaking con- Cofield for underwriting the $25.00 ferring, and counseling on prob- city court appearance bonds of the lems of national and world democ-

> It is fitting that Dr Davis should follow Dr. Alpenfels on the Friday evening program. His address was less than one-half the regular should point out areas for imple- bondsman's fee and actually reprementing basic ideas which Dr. Alpenfels probably will project. (CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Ask Five-Minnade Work Stoppage for Freedom

CHICAGO -The Afro-American stoppage or rest, throughout the Heritage Association with offices in United States, be concertedly enthis city has issued the following gaged in at the hour of 11 a.m. proposal:

page or rest from all work and ac- Pacific time. tivity by all Negroes or Americans of African descent on Africa Freedom Day, April 15, 1960; that said

Eastern time, 10 a.m. Central time. We propose: a five minute stops 9 a.m. Mountain time and 8 a.m. We propose this united action by

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Sim Holloway, Father of 10 College Grads, Passes

oined the throng that lamented the wheels of his tractor, on his the passing of Sim Holloway, fath- farm, located in the northern sector er of John M. Holloway of Ra- of the county, Saturday, It is beleigh, and even their columns lieved that he suffered a heart atseemed to have a tenor of mourn- tack and fell while the machine ing and a spirit of forlorness as was still moving. It is said that an they told of his sudden passing and examination revealed that the tracthe fact that Durham County had

CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ERS-United Press International protested April 1st to the General Services Administration against the roughing up of UPI Photographers Stanley Tretick and Ed Alley at a government building. The two photographers went to the building to take pictures. The photographers were physically ejected by the guards. The top photo shows Tretick being "shown the door" by a guard; the bottom photo shows Alley having his camera forcibly taken from him after he photographed Tretick being pushed towards the door. The guards are employed by the Genral Services Adminis

ently been enlarged through the ddition of five new members. These additions were made in order to provide larger areas of Tyson Continues To Elude Posse

tration, Washington, D. C. (UPI PHOTO)

the week would have forced the outlaw out of the heavily wooded area in which it is believed he is

Gov. Luther fl. Hodger offered a stabbing of a white prison empl $400 reward Monday for information's wife and the rape of two Ne tion that may lead to Typon's cap- gro women. He has been on the ture shortly after a court order de- Fron since March 24. clared the escaped convict an out- A force of more than 100 officers law. Hodges made the reward off guarded all bridges over the Neuse er under a state law which author. River and combed the area in the rizes the governor to post up to manhunt for the outlaw Extra of $400 for eapture of a fugitive who ficers were ordered to join the has committed a felony or infamous crime in the state

M. Fountain signed the papers which give private citizens the power of police officers if they locate Tyson, Private citizens may order Tyson to surrender and if he refuses, they may kill him without fear of legal action. Tyson is wanted for the b

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

BBa." Sgutus. fbd." Mabuutuqeba. 48 g. BETBEBBESSCOO. PF & BEG. 15 C. BB BBC.

FAYETTEVILLE - The hearts! of North Carolina's Negro teachers and school officials were saddened by the recent passing of 82-year old Dr. Williams Sharpe, distinguished brain surgeon and director of neurosurgery and nurology at the Manhattan General Hospital

He passed in St. Petershurg.

Florida where he had made his for the past several years. One of the top surgeons in America, Dr. Sharpe was a fellow of the American Congress of Surgeons. Quite apart, however, from Dr

CONFINED ON PAGE 21

White House Conference Is Concluded

WASHINGTON (ANP)-One of the earlier statements of agreement to come out of the White House Conference on Children and Youth, in its golden anniversary session. which convened in the nation's capitol early last week was that lauding Negro youths staging lunchroom sit-downs throughout

Another was a plea to legislators to "initiate strong measures which will lead to racial justice," originally urged by at a recent meeting of 100 members of the Youth Christian Students, a Catholic social action movement in a mid-western session at Alverno college, Mil waukee. Wise

Originally, the attention of the youth conference was to be focused upon relgious issues.

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2

Rev. Dudley To Address NAACP Here

the local NAACP chapter, told The CAROLINIAN this week that the audience at the regular monthly meting Sunday, April 10, will hear the Rev. George W. Dudley, pastor of the Mount Zion First Baptist

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Alexander Are Heard

chief weapon in their fight for

Thurgood Marshall chief NAACP register and vote intelligently there would be no need for law

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

State News

CHOIR HERE

BALEIGH - The North Carolina College choir will present a concert, under the sponsorship of the Raleigh Chapter of the North Carolina College Alumni Association Sunday, April 10, at 6:00 p.m. at the Crosby-Garfield School

Samuel Hill will direct the choir, which is composed of over 60 mixed voices. Special presentations on the program will be Hiswatha's Wedding

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

QUESTION TIME - Police Captain Dominic Torchai (left) questions Elmer Gene Pollard and his wife, Lola, after the couple's return from Washington, D. C. The Pollards face grand Larceny and kidnaping charges after they took five-year-old Darcy Green, daughter of their employers, of Deal, N. J., away with them to the nation's capital. (UPI PHOTO).