

At Chavis Park:

Rally For Dr. Davis Sat.

THE CAROLINIAN

VOL. 19, NO. 29

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1960

PRICE 15c

Air Force Nurse Is Killed In N. C.

Orders 2 Students Jailed

Caravan To Lead Rally For Davis

This coming Saturday night should be a big night for the many supporters of Dr. Grady D. Davis. His campaign to win one of Wake County's 3 seats in the General Assembly is rapidly picking up steam and the Saturday night at Chavis Park rally has been planned to give further impetus to his campaign.

Present plans for this rally which will feature the choir and special singing groups from all of Raleigh's Negro churches, bands and glee clubs from out of town, will also feature short, inspirational talks by many of the outstanding citizens of Raleigh and Wake County.

The purpose of this rally is to arouse and stimulate Negro interest in the value of good citizenship expressed through active participation in all the areas of living. The promoters of this innovation also believe that the best possible

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Convicts 5 In Wake's Dope Cases

WASHINGTON, N. C.—Judge Algernon Butler sentenced five Wake County persons to prison Tuesday for the violation of federal narcotics laws.

All of the defendants appeared before the judge here after being convicted April 15 by a jury in the U. S. Eastern District Court at Raleigh.

Those convicted were William H. Bryant, 51, of Raleigh, who received 10 years; Leo Pryor, 50, Route 1, Garner, 12 years; Thomas Johnson, 34, Raleigh, 10 years; William Treadwell, Raleigh, both five years. Johnson and Pryor had served time previously for dealing in marijuana. Johnson filed notice of appeal.

Bryant, now serving a five-year State sentence for attempted bribery, will begin his federal term at the expiration of the present sentence.

STUDENTS IN PRISONERS' PEN — Albert Sampson, left, and James Fox, right, are shown above last Friday morning in the prisoners' pen at the Wake County Courthouse. Both are students at Shaw University and were convicted of trespassing at McLellan's Store here. The judge levied fines of $25 and suspended 30-day jail terms, but Tuesday he rescinded the decision and ordered the students jailed. (STAFF PHOTO BY CHAS. R. JONES).

Hubby Finds New Baby, Shoots Wife In Hospital

State News Brief

JUDGES SELECT TOP WINNERS

RALEIGH—Winners of the Dress Revue and Talent Contest were selected recently. The Annual Home Demonstration and 4-H Dress Revue and Talent Contest was held Saturday morning, April 23, at St. Augustine's College with more than

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CHARLOTTE—A Charlotte man whose wife became pregnant while he was serving a prison sentence shot and critically wounded her Saturday in a hospital waiting room.

Detectives said William Richardson, 39, who was released from prison Friday, admitted shooting his wife, Emma Sue, 41. Officers quoted him as saying he became enraged when he learned his wife had given birth to a child.

He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and officers said the charge would be changed to murder if the woman died.

Mrs. Richardson was reported in critical condition after undergoing

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

Judge Invokes Thirty-Day Terms On Shaw Students

Both white and Negro spectators heard Wake County Superior Judge Jack Hooks last Friday morning allow a motion of non-suit in the cases of four Negro students arrested for trespassing on sidewalks in Cameron Village in February.

James A. Fox and Albert Sampson were convicted Thursday by a jury of all-whites, who deliberated only 15 minutes, for trespassing in McLellan's Store on Fayetteville St. In a surprise move Tuesday, however, the judge ordered Sampson and Fox to serve active terms as it was his opinion the two would not comply with sentences.

Fox and Sampson's sentences were thirty days in jail, but was suspended Friday on condition that the defendants pay $25 and costs and that they remain on good behavior and violate no laws during a two-year period.

Thirty-nine other students being tried for trespassing in Cameron Village had their cases not pressed with leave.

The four students receiving non-suit judgments learned that the solicitor (Lester V. Chalmers) did not think there was sufficient evidence to send their cases to a jury. They were: Thomas Hairston, 19, of Lexington; George Samuels, 20, of Wilmington; David Forbes, 19, of Raleigh—all of Shaw University; and Henry Edward Moss, 19, of Monroe, a student at St. Augustine's College.

When Judge Hooks had finished his lecture to the students involved and had pronounced sentences upon Fox and Sampson, defense attorneys gave notice of appeal to the State Supreme Court.

Defense Attorney Samuel Mitchell said in a motion for non-suit of four students in the Cameron Village case that he did not see

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Seven Youths Appeal Terms

Seven youths, convicted of assaulting a white couple, have appealed their cases to Wake County Superior Court.

They were convicted Friday in City Court for assault with a deadly weapon and malicious damage to property. They were accused of trying to break into an automobile occupied by a white couple. The car was parked in a remote area near here.

The youths were also bound over by City Court Judge Albert Doub to Wake Superior Court on charges of assault with intent to commit rape. They denied motions from defense attorneys to dismiss the attempted rape charges.

The defendants were Walter Rollins, 19; Oscar Timothy Robinson, 17; Bennie Craig Mims, 17; Elijah Walker, 20; Herman Lee Hinton, 18; James Thomas, 18; and Harold Lee Allen, 18.

Harold McLaurin testified that he and a girl were sitting in the parked car when the group of Negroes surrounded it and tried to open the doors. He said they hurled cinder blocks at the windows before he could drive away. One of the youths pushed a broken limb through the vent window in the car.

Governor Suggests Jack Quit

NEW YORK (AP)—The bribery indictment against Manhattan borough president Hulan E. Jack was reinstated here last week and the question of whether he would step down from his post was immediately revived.

The appellate division of the state supreme court reversed a lower court dismissal of the original indictment and ordered it reinstated.

In Albany, Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he assumed Jack would relinquish his office again as he did when originally indicted January 13.

Two months later, when the indictment was dismissed, Jack, a Democrat, resumed his $25,000 a year post—highest elective municipal office held by a Negro in the country.

The governor is the only one empowered to institute removal proceedings against a borough president.

Jack said he would not resign

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ODDS-ENDS

BY ROBERT G. SHEPARD

DARING CONVICTIONS
"Any driver who cannot get a car into this space should give up his driving license." The speaker was Dr. Grady D. Davis, who was skillfully trying to park his station wagon in a space that was just big enough for it. Grady's companions were a bit skeptical, they thought there wasn't sufficient space. Grady, however, had sized it up accurately and his appraisal told him he could do it and he did it.

The above remark is typical of the man we must send to the GOLDSBORO NURSE CRASH VICTIM—First Lt. Ethel A. Brown (left inset), a nurse stationed at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base, near Goldsboro, was killed last week as she lost control of her 1953 Buick on the Seymour Johnson Boulevard. She crashed into the home of Sgt. and Mrs. Dale Wagner, who were asleep at the time. Photos show, from left to right, top row: Left side of death car and spot where auto entered home. Bottom photos: Right side of car with motor pushed back under windshield and a front view of the Wagner home. (PHOTOS BY J. H. GRAHAM).

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

ATTORNEY'S HOME BOMBED — The home of Z. Alexander Looby (above) was bombed early April 19th, in Nashville, Tenn. Looby, a City Councilman and attorney has been active in anti-segregation suits for many years. No one was hurt in the pre-dawn explosion although two adjoining houses were damaged by the blast. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Goldsboro Scene Of Nurse's Car Death

BY J. H. GRAHAM

GOLDSBORO—First Lt. Ethel A. Brown, a nurse, stationed at Seymour Johnson Air Force Base Hospital, lost control of her car, a 1953 Buick on the Seymour Johnson Boulevard, a short distance from the Adamsville entrance last week and crashed into the home of Sgt. and Mrs. Dale Wagner who were asleep in the room that the car crashed into.

Their bed was knocked to the other side of the room by the impact, but they were not injured. Lt. Brown was pinned in the wrecked car for forty-five minutes before the rescue workers could free her.

It is reported that the car was traveling at least 60 miles per hour. She was rushed to the Wayne Memorial Hospital and died shortly thereafter of internal injuries, a compound fracture of the right arm and leg and shock.

Lt. Brown was a native of Wilmington, a graduate of Williston High School, and several schools

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Jackie Robinson To Address Thousands In City Sunday

BY J. B. HARRIS

Top NAACP officials of Tarheelia are pulling out all the stops in an effort to get the largest crowd ever out to the Sunday afternoon mass meeting and Fighting Fund For Freedom Rally to be held at the Municipal Auditorium here at 3:00 o'clock Sunday, May 1.

President Kelly Alexander of Charlotte, and field secretary Chas. A. McLean, Winston-Salem, have called for mass crowd of 4,000 to attend in an avowed effort to show the current crop of political aspirants for the governor's seat that race citizens are not, as many segregationists believe, "satisfied with things as they are."

In Albany, Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said he assumed Jack would relinquish his office again as he did when originally indicted January 13.

Two months later, when the indictment was dismissed, Jack, a Democrat, resumed his $25,000 a year post—highest elective municipal office held by a Negro in the country.

The governor is the only one empowered to institute removal proceedings against a borough president.

Jack said he would not resign

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Principal features of the meeting, besides the showing of numbers, will be the crowning of two NAACP "Mothers of the Year" from among a large number of women who have been diligently raising funds for freedom's fight. One will represent the larger cities, and the other the smaller

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

Gift Sparks Ushers' Drive For Helping Unwed Mothers

FRANKLINTON—A gift of approximately $3,400 to the North Carolina inter-denominational Ushers Association this week gave new impetus to the group's drive to change a former college campus into a home for unwed mothers. More than 500 delegates packed into the main dormitory of the old Franklin Christian College cheered Sunday afternoon, April 24, as Mrs. Ruth Morgan of Wenzell, announced the gift during the organization's 36th Mid-year Session here.

The gift was made in Char-

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 2)

CAROLINIAN ADVERTISERS BUY FROM THEM

- PAGE 2: Horton's Cash Store, Mecklenburg Bank & Farmers Bank
- PAGE 3: Joyce & Bailey Furniture Co., Raleigh Savings & Loan Ass'n, Famous Bakery
- PAGE 4: Carter's, Inc., Hudson-Birk, John W. Winters & Company
- PAGE 5: Cameron Brown Company, O. K. Clothing Co., Thomas Food Market, Consolidated Credit Corp.
- PAGE 6: E. Quinn Furniture Company, Modern Finance Company, L. & W. Tire Company, Taylor Radio & TV Service, C. Kerl Lethman, Colonial Stores, Inc., S. M. Young Hardware Store, Odum Cut Rate Clothing Store
- PAGE 9: A&P Food Stores, Inc., E.H.D.'s Department Store, First Citizens Bank & Trust Co., Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, Speedy Wash, Inc.
- PAGE 10: Bloodworth Street Tourist Home, Ridgeway Opticians, Carolina Builders, Inc., Caviness Insurance Company, T-Up Bottling Company, Dillon Motor Finance Company, Watson's Seafood & Poultry, Bankers Fire Insurance Company, Warner Memorials, The Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company
- PAGE 11: Griffin's Food Store
- PAGE 12: Ambassador Theatre
- PAGE 13: Hunt General Tire Company, Dunn's Esso Servicenter, Raleigh Funeral Home, Acme Realty Company, Raleigh Seafood Company, Standard Concrete Products Co., Gem Watch Shop, The Spot Club, Rhodes Furniture Company, Branch Banking & Trust Company

AT RALLY FOR DR. GRADY DAVIS — A portion of the mammoth crowd which packed the Bloodworth Street YMCA Monday night is shown here. The occasion was a kick-off rally for Dr. Grady D. Davis, a candidate for the N. C. House of Representatives. Dr. Davis is dean of Shaw University's School of Religion. See story this page. (STAFF PHOTO BY CHAS. R. JONES).

REGISTER NOW! IT'S AN AMERICAN PRIVILEGE AND A DUTY